years the south western border of the United States has come under increasing pressure from the activities of Mexican narco insurgents. These insurgents have developed rapidly from beginnings as nebulous gangs into networked cartels that have exposed the porosity of the border. These cartels declare no allegiance to any nation and are engaging in asymmetrical warfare against sovereign states throughout Mexico and in Central America. Within such states de facto political control is shifting to the cartels in the areas of impunity that have emerged. This book addresses these concerns and focuses on the criminal insurgencies being waged by the gangs and cartels. It is divided into sections on theory, Mexico and the Americas and contains a number of introductory essays pertaining to this premier security threat to the United States and her allies in the region. Topics covered include criminal and spiritual insurgency, cartel weapons, corruption, feral cities, Los Zetas, politicized gangs and threat analysis in Central America. This book will be a valuable resource to scholars in the fields of regional security, criminal justice and American Studies. It will be of great benefit to military and civil policymakers and practitioners in the areas of law enforcement and counternarcotics. This book was published as a special issue of Small Wars and Insurgencies. Water-supply Paper, 1946 Program of the ... Annual Meeting Organization of American Historians. Meeting, 2003 Geological Survey Water-supply Paper, 1953 U.S. Geological Survey Professional Paper Bruce Molnia, 1984 U.S. Geological Survey Professional Paper, 1984 Respacing Africa Ulf Engel, Paul Nugent, 2010

Space has been reintroduced as an analytical category to the humanities and social sciences in the early 1990s. African Studies is one of the fields of knowledge production where the so called spatial turn has proved to be extremely fruitful. The continent provides ample evidence for complex processes of deterritorialisation, migration, globalisation, sub-nationalisms and reterritorialisation, new regionalisms, processes of bordering etc. These dialectical processes are driven by a variety of actors: political elites, multinational companies, warlords, donor governments, local traders, international NGOs etc. As a result, substantial parts of Africa witness the emergence of new regimes of territoriality, re-ordered states, transnational and sub-national entities, new localities and transborder formations. This volume brings together contributions from anthropology, history, geography and political science. The Protection of General Interests in Contemporary International Law Massimo Iovane, Fulvio Maria Palombino, Daniele Amoroso, Giovanni Zarra, 2021. This book explores the notions of global public goods, global commons and fundamental values as conceptual tools for the protection of the general interests of the international community. It explores how states and other actors have used international law to protect general interests and outlines significant challenges still to be addressed.
