Edgar Allan Poe could call him the best novelist which this country has on the whole produced Perhaps the darkest of Simms's novel length works Vasconcelos 1853 presents a fictionalized account of one of the first European efforts to settle the land that would become the United States the Hernando de Soto expedition of 1539 Set largely in Havana Cuba as the explorers prepare to embark the work explores such themes as the marginalization of racial and national minorities the historical abuse of women and the tendency of absolute power to corrupt absolutely In addition Simms anticipates in this colonial romance the works of renowned scholars who would follow him including the historian Frederick Jackson Turner and the entire formal scholarly field of psychology which would take shape only long after the author's death
