

Miracles on Maple Hill by Virginia Sorenson

Harcourt-Brace, 1968

ABOUT THE BOOK

A whirl of events from the vapors to war the only hint of spring on the wintry day that Marty, Joe, Mother, and Father drove out from the city to open the small farmhouse on Maple Hill. A miracle was happening even as they arrived, according to their neighbor Mr. Chris, the first miracle of the new year when sap begins to rise in the maple trees and it is time to make syrup. Soon the winds and birds around their new home would provide new miracle after another, and Mr. Chris promised Marty that she would see them all.

More than anything, Marty was counting on miracles — not only the ones that would happen outdoors but also the slower, more important kind that happen inside people. The family were moving to Maple Hill in the hope that just such a miracle would occur. For once since Father had come home from the prisoner-of-war camp, he had been tired and jumpy and off.

As the weeks went by, the hickering and unappetizers they had known gave way to a peaceful warmth and understanding. The midnight's rescue of a family of mice, an unexpected visit from the local hermit, and a family effort to save the maple-sugar harvest were only some of the events that filled their exciting first year at the farm and gave the heart of them together once more.

With new feeling for the beauty of the changing seasons and with a remarkable gift for characterization, Mrs. Sorenson has written a moving and richly rewarding book. Like Plain Girl and Charlie Mose, this story of the miracles Marty discovers at Maple Hill will not soon be forgotten by its readers and will be read again and again.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Virginia Sorenson is one of the select group of writers who by a became well known both as novelist and as a author of children's books. Her first novel A Little Finner Than the Angels, was published in 1942, and for this and later novels such as The Evening and the Morning and Mary Winslow she has drawn on her own Mormon background. Two of her most successful have come as Little in covered wagons from Brigham Young's great trek of 1846.

Mrs. Sorenson's childhood was spent in Utah, where she was born, and in her own words, "it was a splendid childhood." She and her five brothers and sisters were surrounded by mountains to climb, streams to fish in, and sheep ranches to visit. Bands of the Indians frequently passed through town, and the family visited Navaho country on trips to the south.

Mrs. Sorenson received her B.S. degree from Brigham Young University, but on graduation day she was far away in California with her husband and day-old daughter Beth. A son, Frederick Jr., was born two years later. Since then, the Sorenson family has lived in Indiana, Michigan, Colorado, Arizona, and many homes, among other places. Two Guggenheim Fellowships have also taken Mr. Sorenson to Mexico and to Denmark.

It was while they were living in Alabama that she saw and rode on the backwaters that inspired her first book for children, Charlie Mose, which won her an enthusiastic audience of teenage readers when it appeared in 1963. Later when the Sorensons moved to Maryland, Mrs. Sorenson came to know the Amish or Plain people. Her second book, Plain Girl (1965), is the story of a ten-year-old Amish girl, and was one of two books given the 1965 Annual Children's Book Award by the Child Study Association as "a book for children which reflects realistically the world in which they are growing up, and some of the vital problems they may encounter there." Miracles on Maple Hill has been awarded the 1967 Newbery Medal "for the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children."
