Vanhoozer, Daniel J. Treier, 2015-12-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Daniel J Treier and Kevin J Vanhoozer set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church s vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship Exhibiting Madness in Museums Catharine Coleborne, Dolly MacKinnon, 2012-06-12 While much has been written on the history of psychiatry remarkably little has been written about psychiatric collections or curating Exhibiting Madness in Museums offers a comparative history of independent and institutional collections of psychiatric objects in

Australia New Zealand Canada and the United Kingdom Leading scholars in the field investigate collectors collections their display and the reactions to exhibitions of the history of insanity Linked to the study of medical museums this work broadens the study of the history of psychiatry by investigating the significance and importance of the role of twentieth century psychiatric communities in the preservation interpretation and representation of the history of mental health through the practice of collecting In remembering the asylum and its different communities in the twentieth century individuals who lived and worked inside an institution have struggled to preserve the physical character of their world This collection of essays considers the way that collections of objects from the former psychiatric institution have played a role in constructions of its history It historicises the very act of collecting and also examines ethical problems and practices which arise from these activities for curators and exhibitions

Creation's Slavery and Liberation Presian Renee Burroughs, 2022-11-03 What did the apostle Paul mean when he portrayed the creation as subjected to frustration and enslaved to destruction What forms of frustration and destruction might he have seen throughout the Roman Empire And how would he describe creation's condition today Creation's Slavery and Liberation addresses these questions by tracing the story of creation as it appears in Paul's own Scriptures the Tanakh Roman imperial propaganda Paul's letter to Rome and U.S. industrial agriculture This story reveals God to be the Creator who makes right justifies and makes alive through Jesus Christ and the Spirit Because God liberates justifies and vivifies the entire creation and since according to Paul creation's liberation is linked to humanity's glorification Paul expects Christians to pursue justice and nourish life Burroughs encapsulates key justice oriented and life supporting practices in seven eco ethical principles To make these principles come alive she describes the ways in which Roman imperial and American industrial regimes have caused injustice and destruction and instead she proposes more regenerative approaches to growing enjoying and sharing our daily bread

A Critical Companion to the 'Mirrors for Princes' Literature, 2022-12-05 Why devote a Companion to the mirrors for princes whose very existence is debated These texts offer key insights into political thoughts of the past Their ambiguous problematic status further enhances their interest And although recent research has fundamentally challenged established views of these texts until now there has been no critical introduction to the genre This volume therefore fills this important gap while promoting a global historical perspective of different mirrors for princes traditions from antiquity to humanism via Byzantium Persia Islam and the medieval West This Companion also proposes new avenues of reflection on the anchoring of these texts in their historical realities Contributors are Makram Abbas Denise Aigle Olivier Biaggini Hugo Bizzarri Charles F Briggs Sylvie Edouard Jean Philippe Genet John R Lenz Louise Marlow Cary J Nederman Corinne Peneau Stéphane Piquignot Noelle Laetitia Perret Gnter Prinzing Volker Reinhardt Hans Joachim Schmidt Tom Stevenson Karl Uhl and Steven J Williams

Clothed in the Body Hannah Hunt, 2016-05-23 Hunt examines the apparent paradox that Jesus' earthly existence and post resurrection appearances are experienced through consummately physical actions and attributes yet some ascetics within the Christian tradition appear to seek to deny the value of the human body to find it deadening of spiritual life Hunt considers why the Christian tradition as a whole has rarely managed more than an uneasy truce between the physical and the spiritual aspects of the human person Why is it that the Church has energetically argued through centuries of ecumenical councils for the dual nature of Christ but seems still unwilling to accept the full integration of physical and spiritual within humanity despite Gregory of Nazianzus's comment that what has not been assumed has not been redeemed English Mechanic and Mirror of Science, 1884

Grand Hotel Abyss Stuart Jeffries, 2016-09-06 In 1923 a group of young radical German thinkers and intellectuals came together to at Victoria Alle 7 Frankfurt determined to explain the workings of the modern world Among the most prominent members of what became the Frankfurt School were the philosophers Walter Benjamin Theodor Adorno Max Horkheimer and Herbert Marcuse Not only would they change the way we think but also the subjects we deem worthy of intellectual investigation Grand Hotel Abyss combines biography philosophy and storytelling to reveal how the Frankfurt thinkers gathered in hopes of understanding the politics of culture during the rise of fascism Some of them forced to escape the horrors of Nazi Germany later found exile in the United States By taking popular culture seriously as an object of study whether it was film music ideas or consumerism the Frankfurt School elaborated upon the nature and crisis of our mass produced mechanised society Grand Hotel Abyss shows how much these ideas still tell us about our age of social media and runaway consumption

Symbolism 2020 Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Klaeger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2020-12-07 This special anniversary volume of Symbolism explores the nexus between symbolic signification and the future from an interdisciplinary perspective How contributors ask has the future been variously rendered in symbolic terms How do symbols and symbolic reference shape our ideas of the future To what extent are symbols constitutive of futures and to what extent do they restrain communication about what is possible and the imagination of fundamental change Moreover how have symbolic practices shaped not only artistic representations of the future but also scientific attempts at forecasting and modelling it What then is the relevance of symbolism for negotiations of the future in cultural and academic production In essays ranging from literary and film studies to the philosophy of art and ecological modelling the volume seeks to lay groundwork in theorizing and historicising symbols of the future as much as the future of symbolism Socio-Anthropological Approaches to Religion David W. Kim, Duncan Wright, 2024-02-14 Socio Anthropological Approaches to Religion Environmental Hope interprets the fundamental functions of spirituality through the theories and practices of hope and understanding the futuristic aspiration of new religious movements The book portrays a neutral notion of hope that can be either religious or humanistic in the face of the suffering or despair of present reality The concept of hope or hopelessness is demonstrated in each chapter under the global circumstance of health risk Part One represents the various theories of hope in Christian history ecology and climate the Sabbath and surveillance and the triune God The insecure situation that creates the expectation of hope is demonstrated in Part Two where the case studies of terrorist attacks immigration volunteering behavior religious education and medieval

Islamic tradition indicate social unbalance The last section illustrates the cultural anthropology of hope through the activities of different native new religious movements including the Moonies Unification movement Yoruba Nigerian indigenous spirituality and Cosmovisions of Sepik New Guinea This book examines hope as a crucial element of human s internal healing beyond medical technology Mirrors of Self Jonathan P. Badgett,2021-10-14 Orthodox Christology maintains that Jesus Christ is both truly God and truly human As such he is the key to knowing both God and self In a series of applications of christological anthropology Mirrors of Self develops this epistemic premise in dialogue with a diversity of Christian and secular historical and modern perspectives Aspects of human personhood including the ever elusive self gain greater clarity and significance in the light of Christ s person and work At the center of individual human subjectivity we encounter a broken sin blinded self in need of renewal and release What healing we find comes to us as Christ s ecological presence works in and through others the mirrors of self whose instrumental agency Christ employs in service to his own redemptive ends

Prosecuting Environmental Harm before the International Criminal Court Matthew Gillett,2022-05-19 The threat of anthropocentric environmental harm grows more pressing each year Around the world human activities are devastating the natural environment and contributing to potentially irreversible climate change This book explores the ways in which the International Criminal Court may effectively prosecute those who cause or contribute to serious environmental destruction Written by an international lawyer who has prosecuted cases of war crimes crimes against humanity and genocide it provides insights into the procedures laws and techniques capable of leading to convictions against those who harm the environment

Mirrors of the Divine Emily R. Cain,2023-01-30 Mirrors of the Divine brings into focus how four influential authors of the late ancient world Tertullian of Carthage Clement of Alexandria Gregory of Nyssa and Augustine of Hippo employ language of vision and of mirrors in their discursive struggles to construct Christian agency identity and epistemology Early Christian authors described the vision of God through the Pauline verse 1 Corinthians 13 12 For now we see in a mirror dimly but then we will see face to face Yet each author interpreted this verse differently based on a diverse set of assumptions about how they understood seeing and mirrors to function does vision occur by something leaving or entering the eye Is one impacted by seeing or by being seen Do mirrors offer trustworthy knowledge Spanning the second through fourth centuries CE in both Eastern and Western Christianity Mirrors of the Divine analyzes these four authors theological writings on vision and knowledge of God to explore how contradictory theories of sight shaped their cosmologies theologies subjectivities genders and discursive worlds As Emily R Cain demonstrates how the authors portray eyes reveals how they envisioned one s relationship to the world while how they portray mirrors reveals how they imagined the unknown Both have dramatic impacts on how one interprets what it means to see God through a mirror dimly She shows that arguments about the phenomenon of visual perception are deeply intertwined with broader debates about identity agency and epistemology and uncovers some of the most self conscious ways that late ancient Christians thought of themselves their worlds and their God
