Investment Arbitration and State-driven Reform Wolfgang Alschner, 2022 Adopting a systemic evidence based and interdisciplinary perspective this book provides a holistic account of how states have changed the investment regime through their evolving treaty practice how investment arbitration tribunals have rolled back changes by interpreting new treaties like old ones and how states and tribunals can successfully modernize the investment regime by reading and reforming old treaties in light of new ones State Responsibility for Breaches of Investment Contracts Jean Ho, 2018-10-25

There is a wealth of material that shapes the law of State responsibility for breaches of investment contracts. First impressions of an unsettled or uncertain law have thus far gone unchallenged. But unchallenged first impressions point to the need for a detailed study that investigates and analyses the sources, the content, the characteristics and the evolution of this law. The argument at the heart of this monograph is that the law of state responsibility for breaches of investment contracts has carved a unique and distinct trajectory from the traditional route for the creation of international law, developing principally from arbitral awards and mimicking to a considerable extent the general international law on the protection of aliens and alien property. This book unveils the remarkable journey of the law of state responsibility for breaches of investment contracts from its origins to its formation to its arrival at the cusp of maturity Fundamentals of Hedge Funds: Alternative Investment Vehicles , Attractiveness for Innovation Location Factors for International Investment OECD, 2011-04-12

This report analyses the current trends in international investment in innovation and the attractiveness policies already implemented. The book also explores in more detail the role of investment incentives that governments tend to give to international investors The Investment Trusts Handbook 2024 Jonathan Davis, 2023-12-12
