Flashback Canada Cruxton, J. Bradley, Wilson, W. Douglas, 1987 Language and Identity in Ancient Narratives
Julia A. Snyder, 2014-06-24 When a Christian writer refers to Jesus as the Lord what does it signify Is it primarily a way of making a political or theological statement or might social concerns have had more influence on the writer's choice of words Studies of early Christianity regularly depend on a nuanced understanding of lexical significance but current research often fails to consider social aspects of what words mean Julia A Snyder argues that methodological improvements are needed in how lexical significance in ancient Greek texts is determined based on an analysis of the relationship between speech patterns and addressee identity in the Acts of the Apostles Acts of John and Acts of Philip She also illustrates how sociolinguistic variation contributes to characterization and the construction of Christian identity in the narratives how it sheds light on the rewriting of ancient texts and how it informs the question of whether apostolic narratives were produced for evangelistic purposes Children's Books in Print, 1993 Books in Print Supplement, 1994 New Testament Apocrypha, vol. 2 Tony Burke, 2020-07-21 A compilation of apocryphal Christian texts many translated into English for the first time with comprehensive introductions This second volume of New Testament Apocrypha continues the work of the first by making available to English readers more apocryphal texts Twenty nine texts are featured including The Adoration of the Magi and The Life of Mary Magdalene each carefully introduced copiously annotated and translated into English by eminent scholars These fascinating texts provide insights into the beliefs expressions and practices of a range of Christian communities from the early centuries through late antiquity and into the medieval period Complete Sourcebook on Children's Software, 1999 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2004 Instructor, 1970 International Books in Print, 1988 Archie Rugh, 1988 The Official Overstreet Robert M.
