Inside Triathlon ,2003 American History through American Sports Bob Batchelor,Danielle Sarver Coombs,2012-12-18

Filled with insightful analysis and compelling arguments this book considers the influence of sports on popular culture and spotlights the fascinating ways in which sports culture and American culture intersect This collection blends historical and popular culture perspectives in its analysis of the development of sports and sports figures throughout American history American History through American Sports From Colonial Lacrosse to Extreme Sports is unique in that it focuses on how each sport has transformed and influenced society at large demonstrating how sports and popular culture are intrinsically entwined and the ways they both reflect larger societal transformations The essays in the book are wide ranging covering topics of interest for sports fans who enjoy the NFL and NASCAR as well as those who like tennis and watching the Olympics Many topics feature information about specific sports icons and favorite heroes Additionally many of the topics treatments prompt engagement by purposely challenging the reader to either agree or disagree with the author s analysis My Life and Times William B. Wray,2022-12-12 My Life and Times is the narrative of a life both ordinary and extraordinary The author grew up in the Midwest in a lower middle class working household His immediate forebears lost their jobs and occupations homes and money in the Great Depression His more distant ancestors emigrated from many parts of northern Europe and settled in what would become or was Pennsylvania New Jersey and Maryland between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries Although the author s family had little money as the first born of four children it was understood that he would go to college In due course he graduated magna cum laude from the University of Utah obtained a PhD in economic geology from the University of California at Berkeley and a Juris Doctor degree from Harvard Law School His professional career included work in the natural resources industries and in the law profession The author describes himself his experiences and observations about life over three quarters of a century in a candid authentic and accurate way His life has been that of ethnic mainstream White Protestant America a category and subject rarely written about He has observed from the vantagepoint of an ordinary person the social and economic environment of the times Supported by a personal diary correspondence and photographs this account is both factually accurate and objective The story is a record of how his life and the lives of those around him including many relatives friends and associates evolved over time as American and world societies developed and changed Tripolar TJ Davis, This book is a mental health memoir that chronicles the author s life with bipolar disorder acute PTSD and addiction At the beginning of the book Tim Davis tripolar tj shares the three areas of major struggle in his life addiction and alcoholism mental health issues and maintaining a healthy weight Tim looks back on traumatic childhood events from his dysfunctional family At age 13 his father died in a tragic accident falling off the balcony at their home and Tim was blamed for his father s death by his older brother That led him to begin self medicating with drugs and alcohol as his mother never sought therapy for any of her 7 children after that tragedy Tim developed many addictions early on in life His childhood struggles and penchant for addiction followed him into his adult life At age 27 he was diagnosed with bipolar disorder after entering another drug and alcohol treatment program As Tim received treatment for his mental health disorders he began to build a healthy foundation for his life He found solace for all three of his struggles after discovering that training for and competing in triathlons and ultramarathons are an important outlet to help him manage a lot of the mania that goes with being bipolar Tim is still happily married for over 23 years now with 3 children He has completed 15 Ironman triathlons 1 double ironman triathlon 7 x 100 mile endurance runs over 50 ultramarathons and hundreds of other races He has been a high school teacher and coach for over 20 years now He races for his recovery and to model to others that they too can overcome whatever their issues are too Insiders' Guide to California's Wine Country
