Contemplating God Changing the World Mario L. Aguilar, 2009-01-01 Mario Aguilar skillfully elegantly and clearly presents the life and thought of some of the major spiritual forces of our time as a starting point for his own compelling reflections on the relationship between contemplation and politics We need more books like this one Professor Ivan Petrella University of Miami Contemplation and political action defined the lives and work of six of the most inspiring Christian leaders of the twentieth century Thomas Merton Ernesto Cardenal Daniel Berrigan Sheila Cassidy Desmond Tutu and Mother Teresa Each one embraced a silent purposeful life of prayer contemplation and conversation with God which the author contends was the very foundation for their public activism Aguilar profiles these outstanding religious figures illustrating how their contemplation of God gave them courage and understanding not just to grow in personal holiness but to become one with God through responding to the needs of others It was their spiritual life that gave them the energy commitment and strength to help feed the hungry clothe the naked and liberate the oppressed even in the darkest most difficult times Yet as Aguilar shows it is not just a chosen few who are called to combine prayer with political action through the regular contemplation of God all Christians can be empowered to work toward social transformation and a just world English University     Unsettled Scores Sally Bick, 2019-12-20 The Hollywood careers of Aaron Copland and Hanns Eisler brought the composers and their high art sensibility into direct conflict with the premier producer of America's potent mass culture. Drawn by Hollywood's potential to reach and edify the public, Copland and Eisler expertly wove sophisticated musical ideas into Hollywood and each in their own distinctive way left an indelible mark on movie history. Sally Bick's dual study of Copland and Eisler pairs interpretations of their writings on film composing with a close examination of their first Hollywood projects: Copland's music for Of Mice and Men and Eisler's score for Hangmen Also Die. Bick illuminates the different ways the composers treated a film score as a means of expressing their political ideas on society, capitalism, and the human condition. She also delves into Copland's and Eisler's often conflicted attempts to adapt their music to fit Hollywood's commercial demands, an enterprise that took place even as they wrote hostile critiques of the film industry.

Christianity Frederick W. Norris, 2014-10-01 A detailed chronological guide tracing the geographical and social development of Christian communities around the world, covering many key issues including the Crusades and the fervent evangelism of missionary movements over the last five hundred years.

The Fabrication of Leonardo da Vinci's Trattato della pittura (2 vols.) Claire Farago, Janis Bell, Carlo Vecce, 2018-01-29 The basis for our understanding of Leonardo's theory of art was for over 150 years his Treatise on Painting, which was issued in 1651 in Italian and French. This present volume offers both the first scholarly edition of the Italian editio princeps as well as the first complete English translation of this seminal work. In addition, it provides a comprehensive study of the Italian first edition, documenting how each editorial campaign that led to it produced a different understanding of the artist's theory. What emerges is a rich cultural and textual history that foregrounds the transmission of artisanal knowledge from Leonardo's workshop in the Duchy of Milan to Carlo Borromeo's Milan, Cosimo I de' Medici's Florence, Urban VIII's Rome, and Louis XIV's Paris.

Alexandrian Cosmopolitanism Hala Halim, 2013-09-19 Interrogating how Alexandria became enshrined as the exemplary cosmopolitan space in the Middle East, this book mounts a radical critique of Eurocentric conceptions of cosmopolitanism. The dominant account of Alexandrian cosmopolitanism elevates things European in the city's culture and simultaneously places things Egyptian under the sign of decline. The book goes beyond this civilization-barbarism binary to trace other modes of intercultural solidarity. Halim presents a comparative study of literary representations, addressing poetry, fiction, guidebooks, and operettas among other genres. She reappraises three writers: C. P. Cavafy, E. M. Forster, and Lawrence Durrell, whom she maintains have been cast as the canon of Alexandria. Attending to issues of genre, gender, ethnicity, and class, she refutes the view that these writers' representations are largely congruent and uncovers a variety of positions ranging from Orientalist to anti-colonial. The book then turns to Bernard de Zogheb, a virtually unpublished writer, and elicits his camp parodies of elite Levantine mores in operettas, one of which centers on Cavafy. Drawing on Arabic critical and historical texts as well as contemporary writers and filmmakers, Halim's engagement with the canonical triumvirate orchestrates an Egyptian dialogue with the European representations.

Play: Psychoanalytic Perspectives, Survival and Human Development Emilia Perroni, 2013-08-15 Is play only a children's activity? How is the spontaneous play of adults expressed? What is the difference between play and game? What function does play have during war? Play: Psychoanalytic Perspectives: Survival and Human Development explores the importance of play in the life of the individual and in society. Most people associate psychoanalysis with hidden and negative instincts like sexuality and aggressiveness, very seldom with positive urges like the importance of love and empathy and almost never with play. Play, which occupies a special place in our mental life, is not merely a children's activity. Both in children and adults, the lack of play or the incapacity to play almost always has a traumatic cause. This book also shows the crucial importance of play in relation to the survival in warfare and during traumatic times. In this book, Emilia Perroni argues that whether we regard play as a spontaneous creation or whether we see it as an enjoyable activity with defined rules, a game, that it is impossible to conceive human existence and civilization without it. The papers collected in this book are the results of the research offered on the subject of play by several Israeli therapists from different psychoanalytic schools: Freudian, Jungian, Kleinian, Winnicottian, and Self Psychology. Other contributions are from Israeli researchers and academics from various fields such as literature, music, art, theatre, and cinema. Contemporary psychoanalysis and other disciplines. Play: Psychoanalytic Perspectives: Survival and Human Development offers new ways to think about and understand play as a search for meaning and as a way of becoming oneself. This book will be of interest to psychoanalysts, researchers, therapists, parents, teachers, and students who are interested in the application of psychoanalytic theory to their fields, including students of cultural studies, art, music, philosophy. Emilia Perroni is a clinical psychologist supervisor at the School of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy at the University of Tel Aviv and the Bar Ilan University. She has a private practice in Jerusalem and in Tel Aviv. She is a member of the Israeli Association of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy, the Israeli Association of Psychotherapy, she is an Associated Member of the Israeli Institute of Jungian Psychology and Research Fellow at the Van Leer Institute in Jerusalem.

The Encyclopædia Britannica, 1911 The Gaza Catastrophe Gilbert Achcar, 2025-06-26 From a foremost expert on the Middle East, a searing indictment of the forces that led to the genocidal war on Gaza and its reverberations across the globe. The destruction rained on Gaza has been seen by many as a vengeful overreaction to the reckless Hamas-led attack on 7 October 2023. However, the new catastrophe befalling the Palestinian people is the continuation of a decades-long course in which Israeli politics, policies, and military strategies have inexorably shifted to the right. Gaza was the final nail in the coffin of the Atlanticist international liberal order before Donald Trump's return to the White House. The Gaza Catastrophe reckons with the lethal consequences and the significance of a war waged by an advanced military industrial state with full US participation and support from the West. Renowned political scientist Gilbert Achcar explores the dynamics of a complex historical process that culminated in the war on Gaza and wider conflict in the Middle East. He offers critical insights on the genocide's regional and international ramifications as well as radical critiques of Zionism, Hamas, and other state and non-state actors. This vital volume is essential to understanding the root causes of the violence destabilising the entire region and the wider world as well as the conditions required to bring it to an end.

John Paul The Great William Oddie, 2005. Offers a collection of essays by distinguished Catholic writers assessing the achievements of Pope John Paul II.

The Path to Paradise: Principles of Good Character & Appreciation of the Hereafter Muhammad Salman Mansurpuri, 2016-01-01. Imam Tirmidhi narrates that the Prophet ordered people to be modest before Allah as is His due. The Prophet then explained that Modesty before Allah means protecting the head and all that is in it and protecting the stomach and all that is inside it. Furthermore, you should remember death and decay for one whose eyes are set on the Hereafter keeps away from worldliness. One who accomplishes all of this is one who is modest before Allah as is His due. This work is an elaborate commentary on the aforementioned hadith. It covers Divine and Prophetic injunctions as well as scholarly discussions relating to a variety of subjects such as having pure belief in Allah, the various facets of spiritual purification, how to use the bodily parts in a lawful manner, maintaining honest financial transactions, the rules of good social conduct, and the remembrance of death and rulings connected to it. The treatise ends with a detailed outline of the substantial events heralding the End of Time and the events of the life after death in the grave and on the Day of Judgement, and a description of the final abodes of Heaven and Hell.
