Economic crises in history teaching Council of Europe, 2025-10-01 How can history education equip students to understand and confront the economic crises of yesterday and tomorrow Since the beginning of the 21st century the economic consequences of the debt crises of 2007 and 2008 of the Covid 19 pandemic and of Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine have continuously challenged the livelihood of many families in Europe and around the world Understanding economic crises from a historical perspective enables students to better respond to present and future experiences of such crises The mission of the Observatory on History Teaching in Europe OHTE is to provide a clear picture of the state of history teaching in its member states This is done through OHTE general reports on the state of history teaching in Europe and OHTE thematic reports which explore particular areas of interest and how they are treated in history lessons The second thematic report of the OHTE investigates the extent and the ways in which learners are being prepared to understand and cope with such crises through history education in the public schooling systems of OHTE's 17 member states It combines curriculum and textbook analysis with an explorative study of teachers' experiences and summarises its most significant conclusions into 10 key findings listed in the introductory chapter

The Geography of Environmental Crime Gary R. Potter, Angus Nurse, Matthew Hall, 2016-06-30 This book critically examines both theory and practice around conservation crimes It engages with the full complexity of environmental crimes and different responses to them including poaching conservation as a response to wildlife crime forest degradation environmental activism and the application of scientific and situational crime prevention techniques as preventative tools to deal with green crime Through the contributions of experts from both the social and ecological sciences the book deals with theoretical and practical considerations that impact on the effectiveness of contemporary environmental criminal justice It discusses the social construction of green crimes and the varied ways in which poaching and other conservation crimes are perceived operate and are ideologically driven as well as practical issues in environmental criminal justice With contributions based in varied ideological perspectives and drawn from a range of academic disciplines this volume provides a platform for scholars to debate new ideas about environmental law enforcement policy and crime prevention detection and punishment

Unresolved Border, Land and Maritime Disputes in Southeast Asia Alfred Gerstl, Mária Strašáková, 2016-11-14 Unresolved Border Land and Maritime Disputes in Southeast Asia edited by Alfred Gerstl and Mária Strašáková sheds light on various unresolved and lingering territorial disputes in Southeast Asia and their reflection in current inter-state relations in the region The authors academics from Europe and East Asia particularly address the territorial disputes in the South China Sea and those between Vietnam and Cambodia and Thailand and Cambodia They apply International Relations theories in a wider regional and comparative perspective The empirical analyses are embedded in a concise theoretical discussion of the principles of sovereignty territorial integrity and borders Furthermore the book discusses the role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and other multi-track
