Justice Not Silence Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, 2013-09-01 The editors of this volume highlight the fact that although the Church often stands up for other public issues such as human rights democratic political rights economic justice etc sexual and gender based violence do not receive the attention they deserve There are no theological or cultural arguments that can justify such a position Sexual and gender based violence are a scourge that defies our Christian understanding of human dignity and challenges the Church in all its formations to respond Although most of the case studies are from Zimbabwe they challenge us regardless of which country we are living in or the tradition of our specific denomination In the context of Southern Africa where the HIV and AIDS burden is among the highest in the world sexual and gender based violence are a major contributor to the spread of the disease This will only change if the Church challenges this practice as part of its educational and public work in theological institutions in congregations but also in its pastoral work within families

ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05 Beef Cattle Production Systems Andy D. Herring, 2014-10-24 This textbook provides an integrated view of beef cattle production with a systems based approach discussing the interrelationships of a broad range of aspects with the overall goal of optimising cattle production This book provides the background to allow cattle producers to match their production environments with genetic management and marketing opportunities for sustainable beef production globally This logic and resulting considerations can then be tailored to address specific regional challenges and opportunities worldwide Considerations and examples for extreme situations will be provided such as very small herds very large herds communal group situations and minimal artificial input systems
