

SCHOOL SCAVENGER HUNT

Visit the library and write the title of the first book you see:

What time is recess?

Name something you
can buy at the canteen:

How many rabbit holes
can you count around
the school?

What colour are the
buildings at your school?

Name one piece of
playground equipment
you can see:

What is the Principal's
Name?

Where do you line up
when the bell goes?

How many toilets can
you count around the school:

Name one thing outside
that is red:

How many flags can you
see around your school:

What time is lunch?

Where is the sick bay?

The title of a book in the reading corner:

How many steps is it
from the library to your classroom?

What time is home
time?

What does the poster on
your classroom door
say?

You Will Never Know S. A. Prentiss, 2020-11-10 In a small suburban town the murder of a local high school student rocks one woman's family to its core and threatens to expose her deepest darkest secrets in the process After a lifetime of hardship Jessica Thornton finally has the life she's dreamed of a new marriage to a realtor with burgeoning success a daughter whose athleticism has won her a scholarship to college and a freshly secured grant from her bank to finally complete her own higher education Her life today is a complete reversal from the not too distant past when the death of her first husband left her penniless and desperate to provide for her then newborn child But after the murder of her children's high school classmate a series of disturbances brings Jessica to question whether her dreams ever actually came true or whether they've just been delusions all along In the days after the murder suspicion creeps in at every corner beginning with Jessica's daughter and stepson who won't tell her where they were on that fateful night Then she discovers that her husband's business is failing not growing and that the stories he's told of meetings with high powered investors were nothing more than lies And when a private investigator comes to look into the death of her first husband her last foundation of truth slips suddenly away

My Schoolhouse Is a Ghost Town Sunni Ali, 2016-03-16 This book is dedicated to the terrific educators that inspire uplift and challenge young people to achieve their personal goals and aspirations The journey of being a teacher is truly arduous and challenging which makes it difficult for some teachers to remember why they entered this field Teachers dedicate a great portion of their lives giving back to society and despite their sincerest efforts policyholders business leaders and certain members of the public do not appreciate the work educators perform on a consistent basis Although it is very telling how many public schools have been closed and minority teachers dismissed from current reform other schools and teachers will soon feel its wrath unless there is an educational push back and demand for a return to community schooling This book speaks to not only how an educator continues to utilize creative methodology to reach youth but also navigate through the harshness imposed by current school reform initiatives My Schoolhouse is a Ghost Town further challenges educators and parents to commit to activism as currently demonstrated by members of the Chicago Teacher Union and parent progressive organizations to fight for reform under this current system and create their own school models Otherwise more urban public schools along with black and brown teachers will become ghost as unrealistic demands continue to impact this great profession Herald ,1942 Aggieland's Leaders By Example Rusty Burson,2024-11-08 Aggieland s Leaders By Example highlights the insightful fascinating and inspirational stories of some of the great Texas A M entrepreneurs and business leaders who have chased their dreams endured hardships conquered obstacles and succeeded beyond their wildest imaginations Their stories will serve as a roadmap to success for current and former Texas A M students with their own career dreams as each first person narrative features advice to aspiring leaders of the future A Murder Down Memory Lane Elizabeth Spann Craig,2025-04-15 Reunions can be murder especially when the past refuses to stay buried Myrtle is less than thrilled to receive an invitation to her high school reunion Fond memories of her teenage years Not quite Besides who throws a 67th reunion anyway But curiosity gets the better of her when she learns that several classmates are making the trek from far flung places The reunion turns out to be a haphazard affair with a sparse turnout Things take a turn for the mysterious as the event unfolds Who organized this affair Who sent out the invitations And what s the real reason behind the oddly timed gathering When a body is discovered the reunion goes from awkward to alarming It s up to Myrtle and her trusty sidekick Miles to unravel the mystery before anyone else takes a fatal trip down memory lane Bullies and Mean Girls in Popular Culture Patrice A. Oppliger,2013-10-03 The numerous anti bullying programs in schools across the United States have done little to reduce the number of reported bullying instances One reason for this is that little attention has been paid to the role of the media and popular culture in adolescents bullying and mean girl behavior This book addresses media role models in television film picture books and the Internet in the realm of bullying and relational aggression It highlights portrayals with unproductive strategies that lead to poor resolutions or no resolution at all Young viewers may learn ineffective even dangerous ways of handling aggressive situations Victims may feel discouraged when they are unable to handle the situation as easily as in media portrayals They may also feel their experiences are trivialized by comic portrayals Entertainment programming aimed particularly at adolescents often portray adults as incompetent or uncaring and include mean spirited teasing In addition overuse of the term bully and defining all bad behavior as bullying may dilute the term and trivialize the problem National Drunk and Drugged Driving (3D) Prevention Month: Program Planner.
