Wharton, 2021-08-26 A black comedy of manners about vast wealth and a woman who can define herself only through the perceptions of others. The beautiful Lily Bart lives among the nouveaux riches of New York City, people whose millions were made in railroads, shipping, land speculation, and banking. In this morally and aesthetically bankrupt world, Lily, age twenty-nine, seeks a husband who can satisfy her cravings for endless admiration and all the trappings of wealth. But her quest comes to a scandalous end when she is accused of being the mistress of a wealthy man. Exiled from her familiar world of artificial conventions, Lily finds life impossible. Wharton, 2020-11-20 Lily Bart, a beautiful but impoverished socialite, is on her way to a house party at Bellomont, the country home of her best friend, Judy Trenor. Her pressing task is to find a husband with the requisite wealth and status to maintain her place in New York society. Additional challenges to her success are her advancing age at twenty-nine; she has been on the marriage market for more than ten years; her penchant for gambling at bridge has left her with debts beyond her means to pay; and her efforts as part of upper-crust society to keep up appearances with her wealthy friends. Lily's choices are further complicated by her innermost desire to marry for love as well as money and status and her longing to be free of the claustrophobic constrictions and routines of upper-crust society. Judy has arranged for her to spend more time in the company of Percy Gryce, a potential suitor who is wealthy but whom Lily finds boring. Lily grew up surrounded by elegance and luxury an atmosphere she believes she cannot live without as she has learned to abhor dinginess The loss of her father's wealth and the death of her parents left her an orphan at twenty Lacking an inheritance or a caring protector she adapts to life as a ward of her strait laced aunt Julia Peniston from whom she receives an erratic allowance a fashionable address and good food but little direction or parenting Lily despises her aunt Julia and avoids her whenever possible while simultaneously relying on her for both necessities and luxuries In the opening sentence of the House of Mirth Edith Wharton places Lily in Grand Central Station i where Selden a friend and possible love interest is taken by surprise to see her 1 Threats to Lily's reputation exist because of her tendency to push the limits of polite and acceptable behavior On the way to visit Bellomont she impulsively accompanies Selden during her two hour wait for the change of trains to his Manhattan flat in the Benedick Building On leaving the building she encounters Mr Rosedale a Jewish businessman known to her set and the owner of the building Attempting to cover the appearance of an indiscretion she worsens the situation by telling Rosedale she had been consulting her dress maker j This obvious lie is the first of a series of faux pas Lily gets caught up in As she makes an effort to explain away the social chances she takes she becomes easy prey for her enemies to misrepresent her intention and behavior Near the week's end the tall handsome and engaging Lawrence Selden unexpectedly shows up at Bellomont Having already failed to meet Percy for morning church services and fully aware that Lawrence has just ended an illicit relationship with the married but vindictive Bertha Dorset Lily chooses to go for a long walk with Lawrence and to spend the afternoon with him instead of with Percy or the rest of the party Even though Lily has already made it clear to Selden during their t t e t e in his flat that she looked at him as that friend who won't be afraid to say disagreeable things to her k she becomes drawn to him romantically Succumbing to her agreeable femininity Selden begins to fall in love with Lily He feels safe in nurturing an emotional attachment to her because she clearly states that she cannot and will not marry a man of his modest means Fresh out of his four year affair with Bertha Dorset Lawrence begins to slide into another emotional attachment with the equally unavailable Lily Scribner's Magazine ... ,1906 The Academy ,1905 Edith Wharton's Library ,1999
