served for another eleven years risk mitigating and approving the maintenance procedures and flights for all of Fort Rucker's 650 helicopters. Whether she's writing about men mothering or money she cuts to the chase unabashedly recounting the exhilaration and uncertainty she is forever encountering along the odd path that is her life. Gillespie approaches her subjects with a keen eye for curious details and a readiness to ask hard questions and give honest even brutal answers. Her willingness to put it all down the painful the funny the mundane the embarrassing has won legions of readers for her print and online columns. Surrender But Don't Give Yourself Away collects forty-six essays which initially appeared in such publications as the Washington Post Austin Chronicle Dallas Morning News Bust Gargoyle and thecommonsplace.org. As Gillespie describes them: There are odes to my good days and bad to trips I've taken both real and metaphorical to holiness found in unexpected places to men I have not slept with to learning to live sober. Too there are miscellaneous ruminations on my alter ego my inner teen the floor mat in my car a dead squirrel in the road. Binding these pieces is the thread of hope there are moments the thread slips out of view only to resurface in some unexpected location. Sometimes it takes awhile but Gillespie always relocates hope discovering even in her darkest times that life is full of an embarrassment of riches.
