Mr. Furman's class

Tim Burton is a very unique and well known director. Not by the amount of movies he does but by the way he uses the stylistic devices. No one like him uses these stylistic devices like he does. For example Tim Burton uses tone, characterization, and setting. He uses them very effectively in his movie Edward Sissorhand's.

For example, one kind of tone that Tim Burton used in Edward Sissorhand's was the neighborhood ladies. They were very gossipy and rude. You could tell that they were never taught etiquette. Once they saw a new person come to the neighborhood they would call one neighbor to the next. They would constantly harass Peg to see her visitor. Peg was a very neutral person that Tim Burton made she was very protective over Edward. They rudely came to her house and invited them to a barbeque that peg never was going to have. Once they met Edward and got their hands on him they were obsessed. They wouldn't leave him alone. Once one found another advantage that Edward could do with his Sissorhand's they would all copycat each other and use Edward. They were obsessed with him to the point where he had no more to give them and then they realized that and turned against him.

Moreover, an example of characterization that Tim Burton used was Edward. Tim Burton made Edward into this very unique character. He looked very gothic and creepy, but as soon as he talked his voice was so gentle and soft. His voice was so different that it was like it wasn't even him. He was sweet and had a etiquette personality with a gothic image. The only thing that

An Introduction to Film Analysis Michael Ryan, Melissa Lenos, 2020-04-16 An Introduction to Film Analysis is designed to introduce students to filmmaking techniques while also providing an invaluable guide to film interpretation It takes readers step by step through the basic technical terms shot by shot analyses of film sequences set design composition editing camera work post production art direction and more each chapter provides clear examples and full colour images from classic as well as contemporary films Ryan and Lenos s updated edition introduces students to the different kinds of lenses and their effects the multiple possibilities of lighting and the way post production modifies images through such processes as saturation and desaturation Students will learn to ask why the camera is placed where it is why an edit occurs where it does or why the set is designed in a certain way The second section of the book focuses on critical analysis introducing students to the various approaches to film from psychology to history with new analysis on postcolonial transnational and Affect Theory New to this edition is a third section featuring several in depth analyses of films to put into practice what comes before The Birds The Shining Vagabond In the Mood for Love Before the Devil Knows You re Dead A Short Guide to Writing about Film

Timothy Corrigan, 2024-08-09 A Short Guide to Writing about Film continues to be the definitive resource for introducing students to film study unlocking the art of film criticism with concise insights about the essentials of writing The text introduces key film terminology equipping students with the tools they need to craft thoughtful and critical essays Featuring an array of student and professional examples Corrigan takes readers on a journey from initial analysis and drafting to the creation of polished essays With an engaging style he demonstrates how film analysis can transform into a nuanced and rigorous compositional process Perfect for both beginners and seasoned writers this textbook is your gateway to mastering the language of film

In the Studio Brian R. Jacobson, 2020-07-21 Studios are at once material environments and symbolic forms sites of artistic creation and physical labor and nodes in networks of resource circulation They are architectural places that generate virtual spaces worlds built to build worlds Yet despite being icons of corporate identity studios have faded into the background of critical discourse and into the margins of film and media history In response In the Studio demonstrates that when we foreground these worlds we gain new insights into moving image culture and the dynamics that quietly mark the worlds on our screens Spanning the twentieth century and moving globally this unique collection tells new stories about studio icons Pinewood Cinecitt Churubusco and CBS as well as about the experimental workplaces of filmmakers and artists from Aleksandr Medvedkin to Charles and Ray Eames and Hollis Frampton

Committee, 2011 Includes bibliographical references and index Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn't as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader's own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere's Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare's Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

The dominance of the male gaze in Hollywood Films Isabelle Fol, 2006-03-16 Inhaltsangabe Abstract The way in which media systems reflect our social environment and specifically how they represent and disseminate gender role models and have a lasting effect on the construction of identity is of long standing interest both in Gender Studies and in the literary and the visual arts In order to examine in particular the representation of women in the visual art of popular cinema The Dominance of the Male Gaze in Hollywood Films will thus focus on the image of women in mainstream Hollywood films Although media and specifically television and films are often considered to act largely as a social mirror films in fact often distort social reality and continue to reflect traditional stereotypical gender constructions In fact these traditional gender images are not simply mirrors of real life but also ideological signifiers In many mainstream films that pretend to depict reality a time lag separates true social circumstances from the film reality the movie produces Consequently this time lag also manifest in filmic representations of gender roles means for the women s movement that feminists have hardly been able to enact new images of women outside the patriarchal context of popular films or change female stereotypes and incorporate feminist thought into mainstream films Thus mainstream films do not propagate an image of emancipated women quite the reverse women are subordinate objects of the male gaze This general assumption has led to this thesis which will deal with the question of whether Hollywood films as representative of mainstream culture still disseminate patriarchal images of women dominated by the male gaze even though feminist thought has been part of our society for some decades now Located at the intersection of Media Studies Cultural Studies Sociology and Gender Studies this thesis will mainly follow the theoretical approach of the feminist film critic Laura Mulvey who developed the concept of the male gaze in her essay Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema Mulvey s concept shall contribute to the analysis of the thesis that the images of women in Hollywood films still correspond to conservative patriarchal stereotypes Within the scope of this still valid thesis one of the major restrictions was to narrow down the film analysis to merely Hollywood film production The reason for this restriction is first of all that Hollywood films representative of popular taste are globally
