Kar Orhan Pamuk:

Snow Orhan Pamuk, 2011-10-18 From the Nobel Prize winner and the acclaimed author of My Name is Red comes a spellbinding story of a poet seeking his lost love in a remote Turkish town riven by religious conflict and cut off from the world by a blizzard. Returning to Turkey from exile in the West, Ka is driven by curiosity to investigate a surprising wave of suicides among religious girls forbidden to wear their head scarves in school. But the epicenter of the suicides, the eastern border city of Kars, is also home to the radiant and newly divorced Pek, a friend of Ka's youth whom he has never forgotten and whose spirited younger sister is a leader of the rebellious schoolgirls. As a fierce snowstorm descends on Kars, violence between the military and local Islamic radicals begins to explode, and Ka finds his sympathies drawn in unexpected and dramatic directions.

Snow Orhan Pamuk, 2004 Political thriller Approaches to Teaching the Works of Orhan Pamuk Sevinç Türkkan, David Damrosch, 2017-10-01 Winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2006, Orhan Pamuk is Turkey's preeminent novelist and an internationally recognized figure of letters. Influenced by both Turkish and European literature, his works interrogate problems of modernity and of East and West in the Turkish context and incorporate the Ottoman legacy linguistically and thematically. The stylistic and thematic aspects of his novels, his intriguing use of intertextual elements, and his characters' metatextual commentaries make his work rewarding in courses on world literature and on the postmodern novel. Pamuk's nonfiction writings extend his themes of memory, loss, personal and political histories, and the craft of the novel. Part 1, Materials, provides biographical background and introduces instructors to translations and critical scholarship that will elucidate Pamuk's works. In part 2, Approaches, essays cover topics that support teachers in a range of classrooms, including Pamuk's use of the Turkish language, the political background to Pamuk's novels, the politics of translation and aesthetics, and Pamuk's works as world literature.

Orhan Pamuk Taner Can, Berkan Ulu, Koray Melikoglu, 2017-07-25 This collection of essays brings together scholarly examinations of a writer who, despite the prestige that the Nobel Prize has earned him, remains controversial with respect to his place in the literary tradition of his home country. This is in part because the positioning of Turkey itself in relation to the cultural divide between East and West has been the subject of a debate going back to the beginnings of the modern Turkish state, and earlier. The present essays, written mostly by literary scholars, range widely across Pamuk's novelistic oeuvre, dealing with how the writer often adds an allegorical level to the personages depicted in his experimental narratives, portrays tensions such as those between Western secularism and traditional Islam, and different conceptions of national identity.

The Idea of a Text and the Nature of Textual Meaning Anders Pettersson, 2017-04-15 In his account of text and textual meaning, Pettersson demonstrates that a text, as commonly conceived, is not only a verbal structure but also a physical entity, two kinds of phenomena which do not in fact add up to a unitary object. He describes this current notion of text as convenient enough for many practical purposes but inadequate in discussions of a theoretically more demanding nature. Having clearly demonstrated its intellectual drawbacks, he develops an alternative boldly revisionary way of thinking about text and textual meaning His careful argument is in challenging dialogue with assumptions about language in use to be found in a wide range of present day literary theory linguistics philosophical aesthetics and philosophy of language

Orhan Pamuk, Secularism and Blasphemy Erdağ M. Göknar, 2013 Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy is the first critical study of all of Pamuk's novels including the early untranslated work In 2005 Orhan Pamuk was charged with insulting Turkishness under Article 301 of the Turkish penal code Eighteen months later he was awarded the Nobel Prize After decades of criticism for wielding a depoliticized pen Pamuk was cast as a dissident through his trial an event that underscored his transformation from national literateur to global author By contextualizing Pamuk's fiction into the Turkish tradition and by defining the literary and political intersections of his work Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy rereads Pamuk's dissidence as a factor of the form of his novels This is not a traditional study of literature but a book that turns to literature to ask larger questions about recent transformations in Turkish history identity modernity and collective memory As a corrective to common misreadings of Pamuk's work in its international reception Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy applies various analytical lenses to the politics of the Turkish novel including gender studies cultural translation historiography and Islam The book argues that modern literature that confronts representations of the nation state or devlet with those of Ottoman Islamic and Sufi contexts or din constitute secular blasphemies that redefine the politics of the Turkish novel Concluding with a meditation on conditions of untranslatability in Turkish literature this study provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of Pamuk's novels to date

Pamuk's Istanbul Pallavi Narayan, 2022-04-28 This book reconstructs Istanbul through the prism of Orhan Pamuk's fiction It navigates the multiple selves and layers of Istanbul to present how the city has shaped the writings of Pamuk and has in turn been shaped by it Through everyday objects and architecture it shows how Pamuk transforms the city into a living museum where different objects converse along with characters to present a rich tapestry across space and time Further the monograph explores the formation of communal and literary identity within and around nation building narratives informed by capitalism and modernization The book also examines how Pamuk uses the postmodern city to move beyond its postmodern confines and utilizes the theories and universes of Bakhtin Benjamin and Foucault to open up his fiction and radically challenge the idea of the novel The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature literary theory museum studies architecture and cultural studies and especially appeal to readers of Orhan Pamuk

Epimodernism Emmanuel Bouju,2023-03-30 Postmodernism has had its day Are we now in the era of epimodernism Reinterpreting the six memos that Italo Calvino suggested more than thirty years ago for the new Millennium in this acclaimed book Emmanuel Bouju identifies six new values for literature in the twenty first century Superficiality Secrecy Energy Acceleration Credit and Follow Through Based on the principal meanings of the Ancient Greek prefix epi surface contact origin extension duration authority and finality these values represent six different ways of relating to the legacy of modernist utopias reorienting postmodern critique and rebooting with all due irony its various forms of engagement and empowerment Equal parts cultural criticism and literary creation this highly original essay both enacts and explores the epimodern turn in contemporary European literature Rigorous and humorous provocative and playful Epimodernism helps us to understand what literature can describe imagine and invent in our challenging times Being Young and Muslim Linda Herrera,Asef Bayat,2010-08-16 This is an excellent collection of essays on youth in a number of Muslim majority and minority societies in the context of globalization and modernity A particular strength of this volume is its ability to highlight the multiple and contested roles of religion and personal faith in the fashioning of contemporary youthful Muslim identities Such insights often challenge secular Western master narratives of modernity and suggest credible reconceptualizations of what it means to be young and modern in a broad swath of the world today Asma Afsaruddin Professor of Islamic Studies Indiana University In recent years there has been a proliferation of interest in youth issues and Muslim youth in particular Young Muslims have been thrust into the global spotlight in relation to questions about security and extremism work and migration and rights and citizenship This book interrogates the cultures and politics of Muslim youth in the global South and North to understand their trajectories conditions and choices Drawing on wide ranging research from Indonesia to Iran and Germany to the U S it shows that while the majority of young Muslims share many common social political and economic challenges they exhibit remarkably diverse responses to them Far from being exceptional young Muslims often have as much in common with their non Muslim global generational counterparts as they share among themselves As they migrate forge networks innovate in the arts master the tools of new media and assert themselves in the public sphere Muslim youth have emerged as important cultural and political actors on a world stage Images of the Art Museum Eva-Maria Troelenberg,Melania Savino,2017-02-06 In recent years the emerging field of museum studies has seen rapid expansion in the critical study of museums and scholars started to question the institution and its functions To contribute differentiated viewpoints to the currently evolving meta discourse on the museum this volume aims to investigate how the institution of the museum has been visualized and translated into different kinds of images and how these images have affected our perception of these institutions In this interdisciplinary collection scholars from a variety of academic backgrounds including art history heritage museums studies and architectural history explore a broad range of case studies stretching across the globe The volume opens up debate about the epistemological and historiographical significance of a variety of different images and representations of the Art Museum including the transformation or adaptation of the image of the art museum across periods and cultures In this context this volume aims to develop a new theoretical framework while proposing new methodological tools and resources for the analysis of museological representations on a global scale

The Turks Today Andrew Mango, 2011-06-23 Eighty years have passed since Mustafa Kemal Ataturk founded the Turkish Republic out of the ruins of the Ottoman Empire and set it on the path of modernisation He was determined that his country should be accepted as a member of the family of civilised nations Today Turkey is a rapidly developing country an emergent market and a medium sized regional power with the second strongest army in NATO It is an open country which attracts millions of tourists thousands of foreign businessmen and hundreds of researchers They enjoy Turkish hospitality and experience its rich landscape and history but many find it hard to form an overall picture of the country In this sequel to his acclaimed biography of Ataturk Andrew Mango provides such an overall portrait tracing the republic's development since the death of its founder and bringing to life the Turkish people and their vibrant society The Turks Today interprets the latest academic research for a broader audience making this highly readable book the authoritative work on modern Turkey

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels

Narrative Concepts and Techniques in International Literary Fiction Ken Ireland, 2025-04-15 The omnipresence of narrative in our real life experience and in the media world makes it a vital and relevant factor for study This book presents an easily accessible guide to a series of key narrative topics with concise entries in a transparent format of compact paragraphs allowing quick reference and omitting footnotes and endnotes to aid fluency It uses throughout a wide range of illustrative examples from Western and non Western literature stressing the universal relevance and application of narrative concepts and techniques These examples are intended to stimulate interest in less familiar non mainstream but important texts and to highlight unsuspected features in more familiar texts Engaging with texts from Africa and Asia the Americas and Australasia as well as from Britain and Europe it will appeal to students of comparative literature to creative writers whose awareness of available techniques and devices can prompt fresh ideas and approaches and will introduce general readers can be introduced to new areas of literary experience Doing Kyd Nicoleta Cinpoes,2018-07-30 Doing Kyd reads Thomas Kyd s The Spanish

Tragedy the box office and print success of its time as the play that established the revenge genre in England and served as a pattern and precedent for the golden generation of early modern playwrights from Marlowe and Shakespeare to Middleton Webster and Ford Interdisciplinary in approach and accessible in style this collection is crucial in two respects firstly it has a wide spectrum addressing readers with interests in the play from its early impact as the first sixteenth century revenge tragedy to its afterlife in print on the stage in screen adaptation and bibliographical studies Secondly the collection appears at a time when Kyd and his play are back in the spotlight through renewed critical interest several new stage productions between 2009 and 2013 and its firm presence in higher education curriculum for English and drama Turkey, Islam,

Nationalism, and Modernity Carter V. Findley,2010-09-21 Book Description Publication Date August 30 2011 Turkey Islam Nationalism and Modernity reveals the historical dynamics propelling two centuries of Ottoman and Turkish history As mounting threats to imperial survival necessitated dynamic responses ethnolinguistic and religious identities inspired alternative strategies for engaging with modernity A radical secularizing current of change competed with a conservative Islamically committed current Crises sharpened the differentiation of the two streams forcing choices between them The radical current began with the formation of reformist governmental elites and expanded with the advent of print capitalism symbolized by the privately owned Ottoman language newspapers The radicals engineered the 1908 Young Turk revolution ruled empire and republic until 1950 made secularism a lasting belief system and still retain powerful positions The conservative current gained impetus from three history making Islamic renewal movements those of Mevlana Halid Said Nursi and Fethullah Gulen Powerful under the empire Islamic conservatives did not regain control of government until the 1980s By then they too had their own influential media Findley s reassessment of political economic social and cultural history reveals the dialectical interaction between radical and conservative currents of change which alternately clashed and converged to shape late Ottoman and republican Turkish history Ecocriticism and Turkey Meliz Ergin,2024-07-11

Situated between Europe and Asia and surrounded by three seas Turkey comprises a diverse environmental and cultural tapestry Ecocriticism and Turkey is the first in depth study to explore Turkish literary and cultural engagements with the environment Ergin examines a wide range of ecocritical issues across four thematically organized chapters Sea Climate Routes and Animals Each chapter addresses various dimensions of anthropogenic ecological change and highlights the role of literature in inspiring hope and action The book takes readers on various journeys from the coasts of the Aegean Sea to the mountains of Eastern Anatolia Ergin converses with both twentieth century writers to shed new light on familiar texts and
