Learn of the Walrus, Polar Bear, Eagles, Raven, Fox, and undocumented facts about Alaska. Born in the Northwest Territory known as the Last Frontier in a then small town called Anchorage, Alaska, this writer has taken the adventures of boyhood, North Slope experiences, and places traveled within Alaska to share. Most of the writings were inspired by time spent 650 miles north of Anchorage and about 250 miles north of the town, considered the most climatic change of temperature in the world, Fairbanks, Alaska, where temperatures range from 60 below zero to 95 above in the summer months. From 1977 to 1987, this writer spent a week on and week off schedule with a major oil company traveling to and from Prudhoe Bay, Alaska. The silent bond in friendship and experiences reflect the beauty of this unique place with unique writer content. Well traveled now and living in the Aloha State of Hawaii, Nathan felt it was time to go back in time and glance through a time capsule and give illustrations of Alaska's beauty that have motivated him to share places that will give you a northern exposure. Pour a glass of wine or milk and enjoy stories of old from the land of the Midnight Sun, Aurora Borealis, Polar Bear, and a few wise tale Alaskan stories created for your entertainment.

Eighteen Wheels North to Alaska Cliff Bishop, 2009-10-01. In spite of the obstacles the Alaska truckers were presented with, they never weakened in their determination to get the job done. These pioneer drivers never conquered or tamed Alaska's roads and weather, but they learned to operate on the back trails and paths, always making their way to the trip's end. In spite of all the challenges, they never quit. The following from Teddy Roosevelt is an appropriate salute to Alaskan truckers. It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood who strives valiantly who errs and comes up short again and again because there is no effort without error or shortcoming but who knows the great enthusiasms the great devotions who spends himself for a worthy cause who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement and who at the worst if he fails at least he fails while daring greatly so that high place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who knew neither victory nor defeat Eighteen Wheels North to Alaska A History of Trucking in Alaska is the story of Alaskan drivers who guided coaxed pushed pulled plowed and somehow made it to the end of the road and beyond over high mountain passes whiteout conditions seventy below zero temperature through mud muck and tundra terrain even onto the Arctic Ocean ice beyond the shore Justice in the Land of the Midnight Sun Michael L.
