Nation Branding, Public Relations and Soft Power Pawel Surowiec, 2016-08-05 Nation Branding Public Relations and Soft Power Corporatizing Poland

provides an empirically grounded analysis of changes in the way in which various actors seek to manage Poland's national image in world opinion. It explores how and why changes in political economy have shaped these actors and their use of soft power in a way that is influenced by public relations, corporate communication and marketing practices. By examining the discourse and practices of professional nation branders who have reshaped the relationship between collective identities and national image management, it plots changes in the way in which Poland's national image is communicated and culturally reshaped, creating tensions between national identity and democracy. The book demonstrates that nation branding is a consequence of the corporatization of political governance, soft power and national identity, while revealing how the Poland brand is shaping public and foreign affairs. Challenging and original, this book will be of interest to scholars in public relations, corporate communications, political marketing and international relations. The gentleman's magazine, 1743

Novel processes, reactions and catalysts are being rapidly developed and compiling this information is invaluable for keeping the audience informed and up to date. In addition, while research on the formation and transformation of pollutants such as heavy metals, chlorine, nitrogen and sulfur species are often conducted by environmental scientists and engineers, it is less familiar to bioenergy researchers. This book aims to bridge the gap between relevant disciplines and presents a comprehensive overview of the entire research field. Provides a state of the art overview of thermochemical conversion processes, catalytic upgrading reactions and catalysts related to biofuel production from biomass feedstock and solid waste. Evaluates the latest processes, reactions and catalysts related to thermochemical conversion of emerging solid waste such as plastic waste.
