concentrate on the ways digital technology is being used in the encoding of films and discuss the ways this shift can be debated from a theoretical perspective Though the discussion is framed through the new media lens the work will not exclude a broader understanding of New Media which refers to video games official websites and interactivity so as to examine how the visual style of contemporary films is dispersed across and influenced by other media Discussing films like Minority Report King Kong 300 and Wanted in relation to Film Adaptation theory the work aims to challenge and rework the definition of adaptation Of Body Snatchers and Cyberpunks Sonja Georgi, Kathleen Loock, 2011 The Mind-Game Film Thomas Elsaesser, 2021-03-28 This book represents the culmination of Thomas Elsaesser's intense and passionate thinking about the Hollywood mind game film from the previous two decades In order to answer what the mind game film is why they exist and how they function Elsaesser maps the industrial institutional challenges and constraints facing Hollywood and the broader philosophic horizon within which American cinema thrives today He demonstrates how the Persistence of Hollywood continues as it has adapted to include new twists and turns as well as revisions of past concerns as film moves through the 21st century Through examples such as Minority Report Mulholland Drive Source Code and Back to the Future Elsaesser explores how mind game films challenge us and play games with our perception of reality creating skepticism and self doubt He also highlights the mind game film's tendency to intervene in a complex fashion in the political moment by questioning the dominant power's intent to program both body and mind alike Prescient and compelling The Mind Game Film will appeal to students scholars and enthusiasts of media studies film studies philosophy and politics When the Lights Go Down Mark D.
