Spirits of Palestine

Celia E. Rothenberg, 2004-11-05

The Palestinian Muslim village of Artas is cradled in the lap of four mountains in the Israeli occupied West Bank. Although Artas has experienced the violence of Israeli occupation Spirits of Palestine does not focus exclusively on the villagers' experiences of violence, terrorism or loss. This ethnography looks instead at the daily lives of Palestinian women and men and how they relate to tragedies and difficulties both large and small. Through stories of possession by the jinn spirits that appear throughout the Koran anthropologist Celia Rothenberg takes the reader past the dramatic violent world of street battles and stone throwing to more intimate realms of power in homes and prisons, family and neighborhood relations and personal experiences of migration and diaspora. Rothenberg shows how remarkably far reaching jinn stories can be; they provide commentary on the constructed nature of kinship, strong social mores and those who are both on the margins and at the center of a Palestinian community Jinn stories remind us that power in all its forms has gaps and inconsistencies Spirits of Palestine is a truly original ethnography and an essential addition to scholarship on Israel Palestine and the Middle East that will be of interest to cultural anthropologists sociologists and women's gender studies scholars

F. Dulles, 2014-07-03 The Brazilian Communist Party was one of the largest Communist parties in Latin America until its split and dissolution in the 1990s Although not granted legal status as a political party of

Brazil until 1985 the Partido Comunista Brasileiro PCB has been tolerated by that country's regime. Such governmental tolerance of the PCB was not always the case. In the past the regime of Getúlio Vargas practiced savage forms of repression against Brazilian leftists whose Red extremism was cited by both government leaders and the press as sufficient cause for Vargas' adoption of the most extreme measures. Brazilian Communism 1935-1945 is an objective and remarkably comprehensive account of the Brazilian Communist Party's struggle to survive those days of repression. From his prison cell PCB leader Luís Carlos Prestes guided the Party's quarreling factions. All who were associated with the Left shared a common enemy: the police, who used the most brutal forms of torture to extract information about leftist activities. Young Elza Fernandes, companion of the PCB's secretary general, was one whom the police interrogated. Suspecting that she had betrayed them, the Party itself arranged her murder. Dulles' vivid account of this violent chapter in Latin American history is based on exclusive interviews with leading activists of the period and exhaustive research in the archives of both the PCB and the Brazilian police. The results make fascinating reading for Latin Americanists, historians of World War II, and students of international Communism alike. American Duroc-Jersey Record American Duroc-Jersey Association, 1921 The American Hereford Record, and Hereford Herd Book, 1919 Newspaper Clippings from the Cullman, Alabama, Democrat 1930 - 1934 Robin Sterling, 2019-01-18 The Cullman Democrat was established about 25 years after the first newspaper to publish in the town named for the famous German settler John G. Cullman. While it came relatively late on the scene, its circulation soon grew to match that of the most successful Alabama weekly newspapers. The Democrat was first published by Major W. F. Palmer in June of 1901. Palmer sold the paper to R. L. and J. E. Griffin in 1902, but by the end of January of 1903 the paper was purchased by Joseph Robert Rosson. The Democrat remained in control of the Rosson family for many years after. Publisher's description
