Florence Gordon Brian Morton:

Florence Gordon Brian Morton, 2014-09-23 A hilarious and addictive novel about a grandmother who just wants to be left alone from the author of Starting Out in the Evening San Francisco Chronicle Named a Best Book of the Year by NPR the San Francisco Chronicle Salon and The Millions and a Best Fiction Book of the Year by the Christian Science Monitor Finalist for the Kirkus Prize Meet Florence Gordon blunt brilliant cantankerous passionate feminist icon to young women invisible to almost everyone else At seventy five Florence has earned her right to set down the burdens of family and work and shape her legacy at long last But just as she begins to write her long deferred memoir her son Daniel returns to New York from Seattle with his wife and daughter and they embroil Florence in their dramas clouding the clarity of her days and threatening her well defended solitude And then there s her left foot which is starting to drag With humor and a tender respect for humanity in all its flaws Brian Morton introduces a constellation of unforgettable characters chief among them Florence who can humble the fools surrounding her with one barbed line but eventually finds there are realities even she cannot outwit Morton s intelligent layered portrait of a feisty independent older woman is an absolute joy to read not only for its delightful wit but also for its dignified appraisal of aging and living life on one s own terms Booklist starred review Exquisitely crafted Witty nuanced and ultimately moving Maureen Corrigan NPR s Fresh Air Smart funny and compassionate a treat People It s such a cliché to say a book makes you laugh and cry but this one does in the deftest way Emily Gould Paste Deliciously sharp and deeply sympathetic a truly gifted novelist Adam Kirsch Tablet Morton s intelligent layered portrait of a feisty independent older woman is an absolute joy to read not only for its delightful wit but also for its dignified appraisal of aging and living life on one s own terms Booklist starred review Exquisitely crafted Witty nuanced and ultimately moving Maureen Corrigan NPR s Fresh Air Smart funny and compassionate a treat People It s such a cliché to say a book makes you laugh and cry but this one does in the deftest way Emily Gould Paste Deliciously sharp and deeply sympathetic a truly gifted novelist Adam Kirsch Tablet

Tasha Brian Morton, 2023-04-11 Acclaimed novelist Brian Morton delivers a moving darkly funny memoir of his mother s vibrant life and the many ways in which their tight but turbulent relationship was refashioned in her twilight years Tasha Morton is a force of nature a brilliant educator who s left her mark on generations of students and also a whirlwind of a mother intrusive chaotic oppressively devoted and irrepressible For decades her son Brian has kept her at a self protective distance but when her health begins to fail he knows it s time to assume responsibility for her care Even so he s not prepared for what awaits him as her refusal to accept her own fragility leads to a series of epic outbursts and altercations that are sometimes frightening sometimes wildly comic and sometimes both Clear eyed loving and brimming with dark humor Tasha is both a vivid account of an unforgettable woman and a stark look at the impossible task of caring for an elderly parent in a country whose unofficial motto is you re on your own Turning his novelist s eye on his own life Brian Morton lays bare the treacherous business at the heart of every family the business of trying to honor ourselves without forsaking our parents and

our parents without forsaking ourselves Writing As a Way of Life Brian Morton, 2025-09-09 In Writing as a Way of Life A Book About Art Craft and Devotion novelist and memoirist Brian Morton Starting Out in the Evening provides writers with a guidebook for finding the psychic equipment they'll need to remain committed to their craft over the long haul Drawing on a rich and varied career as a writer and teacher Morton gives writers at every level of experience a masterclass in how to deepen their tenacity and resilience Weaving together stories from the lives of literary masters like Virginia Woolf Henry James and Anton Chekhov and lessons gleaned from a surprising array of artists and thinkers including Joni Mitchell Jean Paul Sartre and Miss Manners Morton reveals writing to be a calling akin to meditation or prayer Filled with practical actionable tips for developing and sustaining a habit of writing that will last a lifetime Morton has written a generous funny humane and friendly guide for anyone who writes and anyone who wants to write A Window Across the River Brian Morton, 2004-09-07 A writer is caught between her calling and the man she loves in this joyous funny and bittersweet novel Newsday Isaac and Nora haven't seen each other in five years yet when Nora phones Isaac late one night he knows who it is before she's spoken a word Isaac a photographer is relinquishing his artistic career while Nora a writer is seeking to rededicate herself to hers Fueled by their rediscovered love Nora is soon on fire with the best work she's ever done until she realizes that the story she's writing has turned into a fictionalized portrait of Isaac exposing his frailties and compromises and sure to be viewed by him as a betrayal How do we remain faithful to our calling if it estranges us from the people we love How do we remain in love after we have seen the very worst of our loved ones These are some of the questions explored in a novel that critics are calling an absolute pleasure The Seattle Times From the author of Florence Gordon and Starting Out in the Evening this is a novel of two star crossed but self absorbed artists facing crises of the heart and conscience An intriguing look at the nature of love and the need for acceptance Booklist I loved this book Alice Sebold Our Lady of Infidelity Jackie Parker, 2016-09-13 First time in paperback the story of a troubled child who opens the hearts of the people in a small town to their own capacity for love It begins when a vision appears in a carwash window in the tiny dusty desert town of Infidelity a blip on the map just outside of Joshua Tree California Seven year old Luz Reyes whose family was killed by death squads in her native land and whose mother is gravely ill is the first to see it Then Walt Adair the divorced owner of the carwash Then Zoe Luedke the golden haired stranger in search of her runaway husband And even the child's skeptic mother Josephina Reyes sees it A crowd gathers and others in the town see something as well but no two people see the same thing Though the priest Father Bill tries to prevent the vision from taking hold even he seems to fall under its power At first it brings wonderful things healings peace a kind of happiness that the people of Infidelity have never known Then Luz's extraordinary powers begin to reveal themselves There is an unexplained death and the town begins to turn against her and those who have gathered around the miracle child In the chaos that follows people struggle to hold onto the beauty that came into their lives through Luz and the window even as they ask Were they deluded or duped or were they given a great gift

Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction novels novellas political and medical thrillers comedy satire historical fiction romance erotic and love stories mystery classic literature folklore and mythology literary classics including Shakespeare Dumas Wilde Cather and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

Breakable You Brian Morton, 2007-10-01 A literary theft a death and the sparking of desire make for a tumultuous year in the lives of four New Yorkers a polished affecting novel People Adam Weller is a moderately successful novelist past his prime but squiring around a much younger woman and still longing for greater fame and glory His former wife Eleanor is unhappily playing the role of the overweight discarded woman Their daughter Maud has just begun a frankly sexual affair with an Arab American man that unexpectedly becomes life changing Into each of these lives the past intrudes in a way that will test them to their core Navigating nimbly between sharp humor and deeply felt emotion the award winning author of Florence Gordon tells a story of love friendship literary treachery and what each of us owes to the past Inside Morton's broad comedy of manners is a heartfelt novel about the redemptive power of suffering The New Yorker Morton is the rare writer equally invested in people and ideas He creates some of the most complex and real female characters of any writer San Francisco Chronicle

My Brilliant Friends Nancy K. Miller, 2019-01-01 My Brilliant Friends is a group biography of three women's friendships forged in second wave feminism Poignant and politically charged the book is a captivating personal account of the complexities of women's bonds Nancy K Miller describes her friendships with three well known scholars and literary critics Carolyn Heilbrun Diane Middlebrook and Naomi Schor Their relationships were simultaneously intimate and professional emotional and intellectual animated by the ferment of the women's movement Friendships like these sustained the generation of women whose entrance into male dominated professions is still reshaping American society The stories of their intertwined lives and books embody feminism's belief in the political importance of personal experience Reflecting on aging and loss ambition and rivalry competition and collaboration Miller shows why and how friendship's ties matter in the worlds of work and love Inspired in part by the portraits of the intensely enmeshed lives in Elena Ferrante's Neapolitan novels My Brilliant Friends provides a passionate and timely vision of friendship between women

Better Times Sara Batkie, 2018-09-01 Winner of the Prairie Schooner Book Prize in Fiction the stories in Better Times focus on what's happening in places people don't think to look Women sometimes displaced often lonely are at the heart of these stories In Better Times Sara Batkie focuses on the moments in women's lives when the wider world is wrapped up in other matters a father and daughter separated by time and an ocean dreaming of each other a girl in a home for troubled women imagining the journey of the first dog in space a phantom breast returning to haunt a woman after her mastectomy a young woman giving birth to a litter of eggs Such are the ordinary women weathering extraordinary circumstances in Better Times Divided into three sections covering the recent past our current era and the world to come the stories gathered here with characters stymied by loneliness motherhood illness even cataclysmic climate change interrogate the idea that so called better times ever existed particularly for women
