French Comedy On Screen A Cinematic History:

French Comedy on Screen R. Lanzoni, 2014-10-30 French comedy films occupy a specific cultural space and are influenced by national traditions and shared cultural references but at the same time they have always been difficult to classify This book investigates the different methods in which these comedies textually inscribed and exemplified a variety of cultural and historical landmarks French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, Rémi Fournier-Lanzoni, 2015-10-22 An all encompassing history of French motion pictures and cinematographic trends chronologically from 1895 to the present

The Cinema of Ettore Scola Rémi Lanzoni, Edward Bowen, 2020-09-08 The Cinema of Ettore Scola makes Scola accessible to English reading audiences and helps readers better understand his film style the major themes of his work and the representations of twentieth century Italian history in his films French Blockbusters Michael Charlie Michael, 2019-07-17 The digitised spectacles conjured by a word like blockbuster may create a certain cognitive dissonance with received ideas about French cinema long celebrated as a model for philosophical economic and aesthetic resistance to globalised popular culture While the Gallic cultural exception remains a forceful current to this day this book shows how the onslaught of Hollywood mega franchises and new media platforms since the 1980s has also provoked an overtly commercialised response from French producers eager to redefine the stakes and scope of their own traditions From English language action vehicles like Valrian and the City of a Thousand Planets Besson 2017 to revisionist historical films like Of Gods and Men Beauvois 2011 and crowd pleasing comedies like Intouchables Toldano Nakache 2011 the variously filiated local blockbusters from contemporary France brim with the seeds of cultural contradiction but also with the energy of a forceful counter history Cutting across a swath of recent French produced cinema French Blockbusters offers the first book length consideration of the theoretical implications historical impact and cultural consequences of a recent grouping of popular films that are rapidly changing what it means to make or to see a French film today The French Cinema Book Michael Temple, Michael Witt, 2018-01-18 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a key textbook offers an innovative and accessible account of the richness and diversity of French film history and culture from the 1890s to the present day The contributors who include leading historians and film scholars provide an indispensable introduction to key topics and debates in French film history Each chronological section addresses seven key themes people business technology forms representations spectators and debates providing an essential overview of the cinema industry the people who worked in it including technicians and actors as well as directors and the culture of cinema going in France from the beginnings of cinema to the contemporary period On tourne! Véronique Anover, Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, 2020-02-03 eTextbooks are now available through VitalSource com On tourne is a one semester advanced French textbook 5th 6th semester of instruction designed to be used as a stand alone text for a course on French and francophone films or for a French conversation course This textbook could also be used as a supplementary text in an advanced conversation course a composition course or a contemporary culture course On tourne guides students to analyze and discuss thirteen films from France and the francophone world Each chapter focuses on a single film and includes pre viewing activities vocabulary information on the cultural and linguistic nuances of the film and post viewing activities and discussion points Moreover each chapter contains a review of an essential grammatical structure as well as idiomatic expressions used in the film to highlight their pragmatic function The films included explore a wide array of themes ranging from family food and fashion to politics religion and racial ethnic identities

The Palgrave Handbook of Music in Comedy Cinema Emilio Audissino, Emile Wenekes, 2023-10-24 This handbook tackles the understudied relationship between music and comedy cinema by analysing the nature perception and function of music from fresh perspectives Its approach is not only multidisciplinary but also interdisciplinary in its close examination of how music and other cinematic devices interact in the creation of comedy The volume addresses gender representation national identities stylistic strategies and employs inputs from cultural studies musicology music theory psychology cognitivism semiotics formal and stylistic film analysis and psychoanalysis It is organised in four sections general introductions theoretical investigations music and comedy within national cinemas and exemplary case studies of films or authors

Paris in the Cinema Alastair Phillips, Ginette Vincendeau, 2019-07-25 Paris in the Cinema offers a new approach to the representation of Paris on screen Bringing together a wide range of renowned French and Anglophone specialists in film television history architecture and literature the volume introduces challenges and extends ideas about the city as the locus of screen modernity Through a range of concrete and historically specific case studies ranging from particular districts such as Saint Germain des Pres and les banlieues the suburbs in French cinema to iconic figures such as the detective Maigret and the lovers and from locations such as the hotel the building site and the Eiffel Tower to filmmakers such as Agnes Varda and Jean Pierre Jeunet this unique text demonstrates how the cinematic city of Paris now constitutes a major archive of French cultural history and memory

ReFocus: The Films of Francis Veber Keith Corson, 2019-05-23 Using an auteurist lens to challenge the notions of taste genre and aesthetics that are commonly used to form the cinematic canon this book explores the twelve films Veber directed between 1976 and 2008 These include Le Jouet 1976 Les fugitifs 1986 and L emmerdeur 2008

Romy Schneider Marion Hallet, 2022-03-24 The beautiful Austrian born Romy Schneider was one of Europe s most popular film stars and a cult figure from the moment she played Sissi Empress Elisabeth of Austria in the hugely popular Sissi trilogy in the mid 1950s Although Schneider died in 1982 she continues to be one of the most popular stars in European cinema history This book analyses her impressive career to place her within a range of European female stars particularly Germanic and French who defined cultural and ideological images of femininity on European screens Schneider who worked and was celebrated in Austria Germany Hollywood and France represents a fascinating case study to explore key questions of trans European and transnational stardom and Marion Hallet makes a valuable intervention in this growing field within star studies Romy Schneider A Star Across Europe shows how the representations of women stemming from Schneider's star image supported specific and shifting cultural and social agendas regarding femininity from the 1950s to the 1980s This book explores the significance of Schneider's image both when she was working and since within Western European film culture and celebrity culture The Palgrave Handbook of European Migration in Literature and Culture Corina Stan, Charlotte Sussman, 2023-11-20 The Palgrave Handbook of European Migration in Literature and Culture engages with migration to within and from Europe foregrounding migration through the lenses of historical migratory movement and flows associated with colonialism and postcolonialism With essays on literature film drama graphic novels and more the book addresses migration and media hostile environments migration and language migration and literary experiment migration as palimpsest and figurations of the migrant Each section is introduced by one of the handbook's contributing editors and interviews with writers and film directors are integrated throughout the volume The essays collected in the volume move beyond the discourse of the refugee crisis to trace the historical roots of the current migration situation through colonialism and decolonization Contemporary French cinema Guy Austin, 2021-06-15 Contemporary French cinema is an essential introduction to popular French film of the last 35 years It charts recent developments in all genres of French cinema with analyses of over 120 movies from Les Valseuses to Cach Reflecting the diversity of French film production since the New Wave this clear and perceptive study includes chapters on the heritage film the thriller and the war movie alongside the cin ma du look representations of sexuality comedies the work of women film makers and le jeune cin ma Each chapter introduces the public reception and critical debates surrounding a given genre interwoven with detailed accounts of relevant films Confirmed as a major contribution to both Film Studies and French Studies this book is a fascinating volume for students and fans of French film alike Post-beur Cinema Will Higbee, 2013-07-22 Since the early 1980s filmmakers of Maghrebi origin have made a key contribution to the representation of issues such as immigration integration and national identity in French cinema However they have done so mostly from a position on the margins of the industry In contrast since the early 2000s Maghrebi French and North African migr filmmakers have occupied an increasingly prominent position in on both sides of the camera announcing their presence on French screens in a wider range of genres and styles than ever before This greater prominence and move to the mainstream has not automatically meant that these films have lost any of the social or political relevance of Beur cinema of the 1980s or the banlieue film of the 1990s Indeed in the 2000s these films have increasingly questioned the boundaries between national transnational and diasporic cinema whilst simultaneously demanding either implicitly or explicitly a reconsideration of the very difference that has traditionally been seen as a barrier to the successful integration of North African immigrants and their descendants into French society Through a detailed study of this transformative decade for Maghrebi French and North African migr filmmaking in France this book argues for the emergence of a Post Beur cinema in the 2000s that is simultaneously global and local in its outlook An absorbing introduction to this key development in contemporary French cinema Post Beur Cinema is essential reading for students and scholars in Film Studies French Studies and Diaspora Studies

Harrod,2015-05-21 Love stories have always been at the heart of French cinema but romantic comedies have until recently been absent from it In 2001 the global success of Amelie catalysed a major development in the Western world's second largest film industry the appropriation of the Hollywood romantic comedy genre or Rom Com a l Americaine In From France with Love Mary Harrod explores this contemporary phenomenon examining both local hits and films with international status Using socio cultural data box office figures and analysis of critical reception she reveals the ways in which these films mirror shifting attitudes towards gender roles within French society as well as the increasingly important interrelation between French national cinema and transnational filmmaking paradigms The Technique of Film and Video Editing Ken

Dancyger,2007 Providing a detailed precise look at the artistic and aesthetic principles and practices of editing for both picture and sound this handbook contains analyses of photographs from dozens of classic and contemporary films and videos to provide a sound basis for the professional filmmaker and student editor A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema Alistair Fox,Michel Marie,Raphaëlle Moine,Hilary Radner,2015-01-27 A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema A

Companion to Contemporary French Cinema presents a comprehensive collection of original essays addressing all aspects of French cinema from 1990 to the present day Featuring contributions from an international cast of established and emerging scholars of French cinema these innovative essays highlight the diversity of French films and filmmaking techniques that have emerged since the New Wave era Themes and topics covered include the social political and cultural contexts of recent French cinema contemporary filmmakers and performers genres cycles and cinematic forms gender and sexuality and emerging trends and innovative new filmmaking forms Among the French films examined in depth are hit comedies including Bienvenue chez les Ch'tis and Intouchables blockbusters such as The Crimson Rivers police films like 36th Precinct historical films such as Farewell My Queen and Days of Glory celebrated animated features such as Kirikou and the Sorceress films representative of the new French extreme such as Romance Baisemoi and Trouble Every Day and numerous auteur films ranging from Bruno Dumont's Hors Satan and Fran ois Ozon's shorts to Pascale Ferran's Lady Chatterley and Alain Guiraudie's L Inconnu du lac Combining cutting edge scholarship with wide ranging methodological approaches and perspectives A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of French film as well as all those interested in the evolution of this celebrated cinematic tradition French Musical Culture and the Coming of Sound Cinema Hannah Lewis, 2018-09-05 The transition from silent to synchronized sound film was one of the most dramatic transformations in cinema's history as it radically changed the technology practices and aesthetics of filmmaking within a few short years In France debates about sound cinema were fierce and widespread In French Musical Culture and the Coming of Sound Cinema author Hannah Lewis argues that the debates about sound film resonated deeply within French musical culture of the early 1930s and conversely that discourses surrounding a range of French musical styles and genres shaped audiovisual cinematic experiments during the transition to sound Lewis book focuses on many of the most prominent directors and screenwriters of the period from Luis Buñuel to Jean Vigo as well as experiments found in lesser known films Additionally Lewis examines how early sound film portrayed the diverse soundscape of early 1930s France as filmmakers drew from the music hall popular chanson modernist composition opera and operetta and explored the importance of musical machines to depict and to shape French audiovisual culture In this light the author discusses the contributions of well known composers for film alongside more popular music hall styles all of which had a voice within the heterogeneous soundtrack of French sound cinema By delving into this fascinating developmental period of French cinematic history Lewis encourages readers to challenge commonly held assumptions about how genres media and artistic forms relate to one another and how these relationships are renegotiated during moments of technological change Cinema Art, 1927

French B Movies David A. Pettersen, 2023-03-07 In the impoverished outskirts of French cities known as the banlieues minority communities are turning to American culture history and theory to make their own voices cultures and histories visible Filmmakers have followed suit turning to Hollywood genre conventions to challenge notions of identity belonging and marginalization in mainstream French film French B Movies proposes that French banlieue films far from being a fringe genre offer a privileged site from which to understand the current state of the French film industry in an age of globalization This gritty style appears in popular arthouse films such as Mathieu Kassovitz's La Haine and Bande de filles Girlhood along with the major Netflix hit series Lupin David Pettersen traces how in these works and others directors fuse features of banlieue cinema with genre formulas associated with both Hollywood and Black cultural models as well as how transnational genre hybridizations such as B movies have become part of the ecosystem of the French film industry By combining film analysis cultural history critical theory and industry studies French B Movies reveals how featuring banlieues is as much about trying to imagine new identities and production models for French cinema as it is about representation
