Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6-12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development promote literature appreciation and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork Supporting Reading Grades 6-12 A Guide addresses head on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students motivation and test scores The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this the READS curriculum which stands for Read as a personal activity Explore characteristics history and awards of creative works Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works Develop a literary based product and Score reading progress Each of these five components is explained thoroughly describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals in groups and as school communities support classroom teachers instruction and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies. Used in combination with an inquiry information skills model, the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic, balanced library program that addresses AASL's Standards for the 21st Century Learner.

New Standards-Based Lessons for the Busy Elementary School Librarian Joyce Keeling, 2020-02-06

Busy elementary librarians need help applying the new AASL Standards Framework, especially in collaboration with social studies teachers seeking to apply the social studies standards framework. This book shows a path forward for both. This book will be a tremendous help to the busy elementary school librarian who is working with busy elementary social studies teachers. As they are designing and co-teaching library-based lessons based on the Social Studies Standards Framework, the English Language Common Core Standards, and the new American Association of School Librarians AASL Standards Learners Framework, these reproducible lessons will enhance planning and implementation. You'll get ready-to-use lessons as well as model lessons to adapt to the needs of your own curriculum and students. All standards are applied with needed handouts and other tools, and current lists of recommended resources are provided. Lessons are coordinated to common elementary social studies curricula at indicated grade levels but can be adapted as template lessons as needed. Current resource lists aid librarians in collection development to support new and current standards.
