Finding a Way Graeme Innes, 2016-06-22 I learned from my family that most things could be achieved the challenge was finding a way Blind from birth Graeme Innes was blessed Blessed because he had a family who refused to view his blindness as a handicap and who instilled in him a belief in his own abilities Blessed because he had the determination to persevere when obstacles were put in his way And now after a long and successful career from lawyer to company director to Human Rights Commissioner he has written his story Finding a Way shares his memories of love and support of challenges and failures and of overcoming the discrimination so many people with disabilities face He writes of the importance of family the value of courage and the unique experience of a life without one sense but with heightened awareness of the others Alongside his life story Innes shares ideas on advocacy for people with disabilities and outlines what remains to be done to fully include people with disabilities in Australian society Directory of Australian Associations, 1994-03 Low
