Things to see and do...

Bokor Mountain (The Hill). A National Park, construction site and area of historic interest. Tours are best sorted through the many tour operators or your guest house, but be aware there may be some hiking involved, on major public holidays restrictions are lifted and you may be able to go up alone. Atop the hill are the ruins of both the French built resort and the Khmer re-vamp of the site in the 60's. The story starts in 1917 when the French founders started the construction of the road, the "Bokor Palace Hotel" opened in 1925 and catered for the wealthy. In 1940 it closed and stayed so till 1959 when Sihanouk made the decision to make the site a world class resort. In 1963 the hill re-opened with the added attraction of Cambodia's first casino in what is sometimes now called the "new hotel". The complex continued to operate till 1972 when it was once again closed. Now there are again plans to re-open the site as a resort, construction is in progress and is the reason access is restricted.

River, Boats & Trips. The river is really an estuary, thus its level only varies with the tide and in heavy rain, it is therefore salty and supports sea life for the greater part of the year, fish and crab following their preferred saline levels through the seasons. Tek Chhou is the breaking point and beyond there it's all fresh water. It is very possible to hire a boat and crew for the day, ask at your guesthouse or at one of the bars, most will be able to help, but the best trips by far are those with Bart the
