Kapooka Dates 2014:

Mosul Ben Mckelvey, 2020-09-29 From the best selling author of The Commando and Born to Fight comes a fascinating investigation of modern warfare that combines methodical research and the fast paced action of battle with the personal stories of the combatants on both sides of the line Taking us from the suburbs of western Sydney and Australia's military army bases to the battlefields of Afghanistan and Iraq this is a remarkable book that reveals the as yet untold story of the battle for Mosul and the secret involvement of Australians on both sides of the war both our Commandos and Australian ISIS fighters Mosul details the rise of ISIS influence in Australia the Iran and Australia allegiance to fight Daesh and shows what led up to the battle and the ramifications that are still being felt at home by our soldiers and the victims of that war Ben Mckelvey has extraordinary access to SOCOMD 2COMMANDO units the most decorated modern Australian fighting unit ISOF Iraq's premier fighters Yazidis women who had been slaves of ISIS returned Commandos and their devastated families and explains how petty criminals in Western Sydney became some of our worst jihadists who took their families to Iraq to fight for ISIS Focusing on the stories of key figures like 2 Commando's Ian Turner and one of Australia's most infamous Jihadist Khaled Sharrouf Mckelvey takes us the heart of this brutal battle and brings history to life in an honest thoughtful and compelling examination of modern warfare A must read for anyone interested in modern military history

Where Worlds Collide Frank Warburton, 2014-11-06 The world eagerly awaits the New Year celebrations to welcome in 2008 For Tom Warburton it is a time when the past catches up to him when he is asked to yet again help out his Country after a video is received by MI6 about a future terrorist plot The video is from the Infinity Islamic Group led by his nemesis Jamal Ashid Even though Tom does not feel obliged to get involved he cannot put aside the past and his intent to see justice done as far as Ashid is concerned It is the start of the final chase to hunt the man Tom holds responsible for past actions against him and his country but as he has found out in the past things do not always go according to plan This time around he finds those closest to him are placed in danger which he cannot protect them from The twists that Tom suddenly finds out about during his chase for Ashid creates its own problems of utter confusion Determined as ever to deal with the man one final time he heads off as the determined hunter

Defence Annual Report Australia. Department of Defence, 2010

Defending Country Noah Riseman, Richard Trembath, 2016-03-23 The role of Aboriginal servicemen and women has only recently been brought to the forefront of conversation about Australia's war history This important book makes a key contribution to recording the role played by Indigenous Australians in our recent military history Written by two respected historians and based on a substantial number of interviews with Indigenous war veterans who have hitherto been without a voice it combines the best of social and military history in one book This will be the first book to focus on this previously neglected part of Australian social history

The European Diaspora in Australia Bruno Mascitelli, Sonia Mycak, Gerardo Papalia, 2016-05-11 This volume provides a contemporary reflection on the journey of many former European communities that migrated to Australia in the post war period and their stories of settlement assimilation and integration The chapters provide perspectives from a range of disciplines and approaches across different communities There are common themes that emerge as well as unique issues which define these communities

Phantoms of Bribie Ian Mackay, 2016-01-05

Phantoms of Bribie is a highly readable blend of an engaging yarn and a fascinating portrayal of operational service in Vietnam as an infantry company commander leading some 100 fine young national service and regular soldiers in close quarter jungle fighting Ian's training within the SAS and operational service in Malaya served him well in Vietnam where he was a company commander of Bravo Company 6 RAR During Operation Bribie he led his outnumbered company's desperate bayonet charge followed by close quarter fighting against a well dug in and determined enemy This action sharply illustrated the courage the battle discipline and the spirit of the well trained Australian combat infantryman On leaving the Army Ian excelled in the Australian and international business worlds A multi talented sportsman Rugby Union remained his passion in which he performed to international level Ian outlines the difference between leadership and management using many interesting and often humorous examples Both qualities are vital for successful senior operatives in both civilian and military organisations Most importantly as Ian explains a good leader must also be an effective decision maker and a good communicator This book is a tribute to Ian Mackay's qualities as a battlefield commander an international sportsman a successful businessman and an entertaining author

Changing Altitudes Big Sky Publishing, 2024-10-02

In the early years of the Second World War Australian women began lobbying to contribute to the nation's wartime effort From 1940 women were signing up to serve in the Royal Australian Nursing Service and in 1941 an Auxiliary arm of the Royal Australian Air Force was established allowing women to join on a temporary basis to enhance the organisation's ability to fight In the decades since Australian women have continued to contribute significantly to the operational capability of the world's second oldest air force They have done so regardless of the social norms of the time or the perceived limits of their abilities always showing their detractors that they are capable of great things Changing Altitudes The Stories of Australian Air Force Women includes the personal stories of some of these women recounting in their own words their experiences while proudly wearing the uniform of the Service This is the second volume of the Royal Australian Air Force Oral Histories series aiming to capture the one capability that the RAAF cannot operate without its people Architecture on the Borderline Anoma Pieris, 2019-06-25 Architecture on the Borderline interrogates space and territory in a turbulent present where nation state borders are porous to a few but impermeable to many. It asks how these uneven and conflicted social realities are embodied in the physical and material conditions imagined, produced or experienced through architecture and urbanism. Drawing on historical global examples, this rich collection of essays illustrates how empires, nations and cities expand their frontiers and contest boundaries but equally how borderline identities of people and places influence or expose these processes. Empirical chapters covering Central Asia, the Asia Pacific region, the American continent, Europe and the Middle East offer multiple critical insights into the ways in which our spatial imagination is contingent on border thinking, on the ways of being and navigating frontiers, boundaries and margins. The three themes used to organise their content: The underlying premise of the book is that sensitisation to border conditions can alter our understanding of the static physical spaces that service political or cultural ideologies and that the view from the periphery opens up new ways of understanding sovereignty. In exploring these various spaces and their transformative subjectivities, this book also reveals the unrelenting precarity of contesting and living on the margins and related spaces and discourses that are neglected or suppressed.

New Perceptions of the Vietnam War Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen, 2014-12-03 The effects of the War outside present day Vietnam are ongoing. Substantial Vietnamese communities in countries that participated in the conflict are contributing to renewed interpretations of it. This collection of new essays explores changes in perceptions of the war and the Vietnamese diaspora, examining history, politics, biography and literature with Vietnamese, American, Australian and French scholars providing new insights. Twelve essays cover South Vietnamese leadership and policies, women and civilians, veterans overseas, smaller allies in the war, Australia, accounts by U.S. Australian and South Vietnamese servicemen as well as those of Indigenous soldiers from the U.S. and Australia, memorials and commemorations and the legacy of war on individual lives and government policy.

My Vietnam War Dave Morgan, 2014-08-05 My Vietnam War is Dave Morgan's story. A typical 20 year old, he was forced into extraordinary circumstances in Vietnam. Far from his carefree youth, the Vietnam War would expose Dave to an atmosphere of ever present danger and sheer terror that would impact him forever. His return to a divided Australia would isolate him further. During his service, Dave wrote home to his mother from Vietnam, tracking the days and the events. In 1992, after his mother passed away, he found all of his letters with his own recollections and diary entries and the short stories of seven other veterans to capture the unbelievable danger and horror that these young men experienced in Vietnam. He also describes how Vietnam established life long feelings of intense loyalty, trust and mateship between the men that served there. Dave's story focuses on his time as a soldier and his return, psychologically exhausted, to a divided nation.
