Miraculous Realism Niels Niessen, 2020-03-01 An authoritative study of this postsecular film movement from the French Belgian border region that rose to prominence at the turn of the twenty first century At the 1999 Cannes Film Festival two movies from northern Francophone Europe swept almost all the main awards Rosetta by the Walloon directors Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne won the Golden Palm and L humanit by the French director Bruno Dumont won the Grand Prize both won acting awards as well Taking this miracle of Cannes as the point of departure Niels Niessen identifies a transregional film movement in the French Belgian border region the Cin ma du Nord or cinema of the North He examines this movement within the contexts of French and Belgian national cinemas from the silent era to the digital age as well as that of the new realist tendency in world cinema of the last three decades In addition he traces from a northern perspective a secular religious tradition in Francophone European film and philosophy from Bresson and Pialat via Bazin Deleuze and Godard to the Dardennes and Dumont while critiquing this tradition for its frequent use of a humanist vocabulary of grace for a secular world Once a cradle of the Industrial Revolution the Franco Belgian Nord faced economic crisis for most of the twentieth century Miraculous Realism demonstrates that the Cin ma du Nord s rise to prominence resulted from the region s endeavor to reinvent itself economically and culturally at the crossroads of Europe after decades of recession This book not only makes a major contribution to the field but also creates a new area in this field the opening up of discussion of the Cin ma du Nord in geopolitical historical and theoretical terms through a blend of fine close reading and broader commentary Sarah Cooper author of The Soul of Film Theory
