Towards More Understanding Isabel Cilliers, 1993 Shadow Sisters Shelley Davidow, 2018-03-28 A brave heartrending memoir of family love and longing in the turbulent era of Apartheid in South Africa During the terrifying years of Apartheid in South Africa Shelley Davidow's family was a crime At a time when it was illegal for black and white people to live together Shelley's social activist parents took in Rosie an abandoned black three year old Rosie grew up as a beloved daughter and sister in a white household Against the backdrop of racist laws and ever present threats of violence Shelley's parents did all they could to provide a safe happy home for their five children But when Rosie was sixteen devastating truths came to light shattering the family's understanding of the past In this haunting memoir Shelley Davidow sifts through the memories of her early life searching for hope and reconciliation Shadow Sisters leaves us with a deeper understanding of family love and of how sometimes that love is not enough Walk Through Paradise, 1995 Assessing Academic

Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Armed Vision Martin Trump, 1987 The Indian P.E.N., 1966 Different Horizons Chantal Thomson, 2001
