Digital Media and the Preservation of Indigenous Languages in Africa Fulufhelo Oscar Makananise, Shumani Eric Madima, 2024-06-18 Digital Media and the Preservation of Indigenous Languages in Africa Toward a Digitalized and Sustainable Society presents cutting edge epistemological debates academic case studies and empirical research from African scholars on the intersection of digital media technologies artificial intelligence and the preservation of Indigenous languages in the continent This edited collection provides a methodology for African researchers practitioners and marginalized communities to integrate digital technologies into their lives to foster innovation advance the documentation and preservation of underrepresented languages and promote African centered epistemologies Contributors to this edited volume argue that African societies should acknowledge and embrace digital media platforms Despite these platforms potential as sites of epistemic colonialism they are essential for promoting ways of life that reflect the diversity and importance of Indigenous cultures For Indigenous languages and local epistemologies to flourish in this rapidly evolving technological era African communities must employ a variety of contemporary practices and strategies to document protect and preserve ways of being that have formerly been relegated to the periphery Teacher Preparation in South Africa Linda Chisholm, 2019-10-09 The book will focus on the emergence of a racially divided system of teacher preparation and its dismantling post apartheid It will explore the policies and politics of discrepant pathways to teacher preparation within the context of international and comparative trends Black Tertiary Education, 1987, 1988 Annual Report Kangwane (South Africa). Department of Education, 1992 Kontak, 1992 Women of Fire and Spirit Cynthia Hoehler-Fatton, 1996-04-11 The African Christian Roho religion or Holy Spirit movement is a charismatic and prophetic movement that arose in the Luo region of western Kenya This movement has fascinated students of history and religion for more than sixty years but surprisingly has not been extensively studied This book fills that lacuna In Women of Fire and Spirit Cynthia Hoehler Fatton uses the extensive oral histories and life narratives of active participants in the faith giving them full voice in constructing the history of their Church In doing so she counter balances the existing historical literature which draws heavily on colonial records Hoehler Fatton s sources call into question the paradigm of schism that has dominated the discussion of African independent Christianity Faith rather than schism or politics emerges here as the hallmark of Roho religion Hoehler Fatton s book is doubly unusual in foregrounding the role of women in the evolution and expansion of their Church She traces the gradual transformation of women s involvement from the early years when drawing on indigenous models of female spirit possession women acted as soldiers headed congregations and served as pastors to the present condition of Western style institutionalization and exclusion for women Despite this marginalization women members continue to be inspired by the defiance of past heroines Drum ,1997 Debates of the National Assembly (Hansard) South Africa.
