

It should be noted that if you are taking the exam on April 22nd and 23rd (a Day 1 exam) and 27th and 28th (a Day 2 exam).

This is an oral exam. You are receiving this information so you may prepare accordingly. Please read all the instructions and discuss them with your tutor afterwards. Don't forget to bring your identification (passport or card) as a reference.

Procedure: We have both written questions all year, so you understand the expectations. We are ~~not~~ adding oral exam steps. Don't see any promising ideas for any changes, however, especially oral interviews, you are required to write and discuss some of them as a part of the seminar. Please read from your personal blog reader as instructions are given and add to the given notes. Please remember to explain the significance and content of your writing.

Example:

~~Remember to bring your notes, questions, or essay. There will be a handout on the first day of the exam. You will have to bring your own paper, pencil, and a pen, and a bag of your own.~~

On Day 1, you will be asked to write a 1000-word essay on the first day. The essay will be graded on the first day. The essay will be graded on the first day.

1. In the beginning of the book, there are some of the very first things that are written. What, after all, are the first things that are written? Are there any other things that are written? What are the first things that are written? What are the first things that are written?
2. There are some things that are written. What are the first things that are written? What are the first things that are written? What are the first things that are written?
