because I can.

A watercolor illustration of a broken heart. The heart is depicted in two pieces: the upper half is at the top, tilted slightly to the right, and the lower half is at the bottom, tilted slightly to the left. The heart is rendered in shades of grey and black, with visible brushstrokes and splatters. Red ink splatters and dots are scattered around the heart, particularly on the left side. The background is a light, textured surface with faint red and grey washes.
