Good Flyers For Literacy Night:

Family Reading Night Darcy J. Hutchins, Joyce L. Epstein, Marsha D. Greenfeld, 2014-09-19 Host family reading nights at your school. These events promote literacy outside of the classroom and encourage families to get involved in their children's achievement. They also build relationships among educators, families, and community partners. This practical book is full of step-by-step guidelines and reproducible activities to help you bring family reading nights to life in your own school or district. Special Features The book is organized by month of the school year so you can quickly find activities that meet your needs. Each activity is easy to implement and includes a page of instructions for teacher leaders and an activity page for families. An appendix provides all of the forms you need to get your Family Reading Night started, including invitations and registration sheets. All of the family activities can be photocopied or downloaded for free from our website www.routledge.com/books/details/9781138021471 so that you can print and distribute them during your event. This enhanced second edition includes connections to the Common Core State Standards for reading. It also features a special new appendix with all of the family activities translated into Spanish to help more families get involved.

Effective Literacy Coaching Shari Frost, Roberta Buhle, Camille L. Z. Blachowicz, 2009 Whether you're new to literacy coaching or a seasoned coach, here's a resource with more than 50 easy-to-use tools for improving literacy instruction, honing your coaching skills, and creating an effective literacy program in grades K-12. All tools are also available for download.

Toward Culturally Sustaining Teaching Kindel Turner Nash, Crystal Polite Glover, Bilal Polson, 2020-07-16 Demonstrating equitable practices and strategies that move toward culturally sustaining teaching, such as translanguaging, explorations of children's literature, alternative modes of literacy assessment, photography, and arts integration, student-driven poetry units, and more, this book shares the stories of four teacher-teacher dyads who worked together across university-school contexts to study, generate, and evaluate culturally relevant and sustaining literacy practices in early childhood classrooms across the country. Highlighting the voices and roles of children, families, community members, and teachers of Color, this book suggests new ways for all teachers to build and sustain relationships that are relevant and work toward being sustaining and anticipatory, and offers solutions for challenges that arise in these contexts. Insightful and instructive, the narratives in this collection model how to create positive and mutually beneficial dynamics among teachers, children, and their families and communities. This book offers a timely resource for pre-service teachers, teachers, scholars, faculty, and graduate students in language and literacy education, early childhood education, and culturally relevant, responsive, and sustaining teaching.

The BIG Book of Reading, Rhyming, and Resources Beth Christina Maddigan, Stefanie Drennan, Roberta E. Thompson, 2005-10-30 Promote reading and literacy with this wonderful assortment of lively, fast-paced, fun-filled children's programs specifically designed for children aged 4 through 8.
