Contemporary Debates on the Short Story José R. Ibáñez Ibáñez, José Francisco Fernández, Carmen M. Bretones, 2007 For nearly a century of being underestimated as a literary genre the short story is currently experiencing a revival The editors of this collection of articles have brought together the contributions of nine outstanding scholars in the field of the short story to reveal some of the many directions in which the genre is expanding This book is a reasoned and well documented anthology which casts light on new aspects of the short story It participates in the current trend of short story criticism characterized by the gathering in one single volume of a diversity of approaches with the main aim of promoting discussion on this thriving area of literary studies The editors of this volume believe that a fruitful tension may rise by putting side by side insights into a not so well known tradition on the one hand and fresh considerations on unexpected developments of the short story on the other All in all the short story emerges as a dynamic and flexible form that reacts and adapts itself better than any other literary genre to the challenges of the sceptical times we live in

The Frontier of Writing Ian Hickey, Eugene O'Brien, 2024-06-28 The Frontier of Writing A Study of Seamus

Heaney's Prose is the first collection of essays solely focused on examining the Nobel prize winning poet's prose. The collection offers ten different perspectives on this body of work which vary from sustained thematic analyses on poetic form, the construction of identity and poetry as redress to a series of close readings of prose writing on poetic exemplars such as Robert Lowell, Patrick Kavanagh, W.B. Yeats, Ted Hughes, Philip Larkin and Brian Friel. Seamus Heaney's prose is extensive in its literary depth, knowledge, critical awareness and its span. During the course of his life, he published six collections of prose entitled Preoccupations, Selected Prose (1968, 1978), Place and Displacement, Recent Poetry of Northern Ireland, The Government of the Tongue, The 1986 T.S. Eliot Memorial Lectures and Other Critical Writings, The Place of Writing, The Redress of Poetry, Oxford Lectures and Finders Keepers. Each of these texts is addressed in the collection alongside occasional and specific essays such as Crediting Poetry, Writer and Righter and Mossbawn via Mantua. Ireland in and Europe: Cross currents and Exchanges among many others. This book is a comprehensive and timely study of Seamus Heaney's prose from leading international scholars in the field.

Toying with Childhood Usha Mudiganti, 2022-02-27. This book studies the dialectic relationship between the image of the child and the toy in literary depictions of childhood in 19th and 20th century Anglo-American fiction. Drawing from the psychoanalytic theories of Sigmund Freud, Anna Freud, D.W. Winnicott and Sudhir Kakar, it analyses themes such as the heterogeneity of childhood and the construction of the ideals of childhood. It explores the linkages between the ideals of childhood in Britain and its travel to America and further dissemination in British India. It discusses the established tropes of childhood such as innocence, a formative period, the centrality of play and the presence of a toy to argue that the mores of childhood are culturally constructed and lead to the reification of a child into an image of perfection. The author problematises the notion of essential innocence and discusses the repercussions of such stereotypes about childhood. The work also highlights parallels between the ideals of childhood established in 19th century Britain and the portrayals of postcolonial Indian childhoods in 20th century Indian English literature. Toying with Childhood will be useful for students and researchers of education, childhood studies, psychology, sociology, literature, gender studies and development studies. It will also appeal to general readers interested in cultural perceptions of childhood, literary depictions of children and the works of Sigmund Freud.
