Growing Up Without Books:

The Home Treasure Ransom Sabin, 1890      New York Magazine, 1994-11-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea      Contemporary Physician-Authors Nathan Carlin, 2021-11-23 This book examines the phenomenon of physician authors Focusing on the books that contemporary doctors write the stories that they tell with contributors critically engaging their work A selection of original chapters from leading scholars in medical and health humanities analyze the literary output of doctors including Oliver Sacks Danielle Ofri Atul Gawande Louise Aronson Siddhartha Mukherjee and Abraham Verghese Discussing issues of moral meaning in the works of contemporary doctor writers from memoir to poetry this collection reflects some of the diversity of medicine today A key reference for all students and scholars of medical and health humanities the book will be especially useful for those interested in the relationship between literature and practising medicine      Re-imagining Curriculum Lynn Quinn, 2019-11-15 The book argues that academics academic developers and academic leaders need to undertake curriculum work in their institutions that has the potential to disrupt common sense notions about curriculum and create spaces for engagement with scholarly concepts and theories to re imagine curricula for the changing times Now more than ever in the history of higher education curriculum practices and processes need to be shared the findings of research undertaken on curriculum need to be disseminated to inform curriculum work We hope the book will enable readers to look beyond their contextual difficulties and constraints to find spaces where they can dream and begin to implement innovative and creative solutions to what may seem like intractable challenges or difficulties      Worlds beyond My Window Rich Burlingham, 2021-11-05 Artist columnist and poet Gertrude McCarty Smith 1923 2007 of Collins Mississippi carried herself as a demure and proper southern lady yet this was deceiving as she was a prolific creative trailblazer who had collectors and dedicated readers from coast to coast and even in Europe She grew up during the Great Depression with only some vivid storytelling and pictures from the family Bible to inspire and kindle her artistic spirit However at the age of ten her career launched when her grandmother coaxed her with a box of crayons to milk the family cow her seventy year love affair with the arts was born Over the years she would express her creativity in many forms resulting in thousands of paintings sculptures songs poems and newspaper columns and along the way a variety of artful cakes as she ran a celebrated twenty five year cake business Her art appeared in all shapes sizes materials and edibility For most of her early career Gertrude dabbled with a variety of styles with subjects mostly centered around life in rural Mississippi and her spiritual life But in 1980 at the age of fifty seven she attended her first Mississippi Art Colony at Camp Jacob in Utica Mississippi Over the next fifteen years

she would make her pilgrimage twice a year to be inspired by celebrated guest instructors from around the nation and connect with fellow artists The Colony was a major catalyst exposing her to new styles giving her encouragement and freedom to experiment Gertrude said of the Colony I never knew anything about abstract art but it fascinated me to no end Abstract art to me is like a beautiful melody without words In mixed media I am in another world and often am surprised at the piece that evolves from the torn watercolor papers The effect is a kaleidoscope of colors that makes the retinas dance This book features more than 150 images a dozen poems insightful essays from New York art dealer Stephen Rosenberg acclaimed southern cultural scholar and curator Pat Pinson and artist curator and instructor Rick Wilemon along with a foreword by Tommy King president of William Carey University and a chronicle of her life's journey by her son in law Thomas R Brooks As Rosenberg has said Gertrude Smith is a remarkable and authentic American woman who teaches us that talent and creativity combined with a humanistic spirit is both a state of mind and a state of grace at any age Book proceeds will benefit the Gertrude McCarty Smith Foundation for the Arts to bring access and passion for literature performance and visual arts to children in underserved communities throughout Mississippi

Minders of Make-believe Leonard S. Marcus, 2008 Marcus offers this animated history of the visionaries editors illustrators and others whose books have transformed American childhood and American culture

Building on Strength Ana Celia Zentella, 2005 Tackling mainstream views leading researchers and teacher trainers examine language attitudes and socialization practices that help determine what and how Latino children speak read and write The text suggests universal practices to facilitate language socialization in multilingual communities including applications for teachers Contributors Robert Bayley Fazila Bhimji El as Dom niguez Barajas Lucila D Ek Marcia Farr Norma Gonz lez Magaly Lavadenz Carmen I Mercado Ana Mar a Rela o Pastor Ana Roca M Victoria Rodr guez Sandra R Schechter Who could doubt the importance of this book No other volume so thoroughly lays out essential issues on oral and written language acquisition use and change among Latino families Shirley Brice Heath Professor at Large Watson Institute for International Studies Brown University A must read for researchers and practitioners who focus on language and literacy in general as well as for those who specialize in the education of young Latinos

Growing Up in a Culture of Respect Inge Bolin, 2006-03-01 Far from the mainstream of society the pastoral community of Chillihuani in the high Peruvian Andes rears children who are well adjusted creative and curious They exhibit superior social and cognitive skills and maintain an attitude of respect for all life as they progress smoothly from childhood to adulthood without a troubled adolescence What makes such child rearing success even more remarkable is that childhood is not recognized as a distinct phase of life Instead children assume adult rights and responsibilities at an early age in order to help the community survive in a rugged natural environment and utter material poverty This beautifully written ethnography provides the first full account of child rearing practices in the high Peruvian Andes Inge Bolin traces children's lives from birth to adulthood and finds truly amazing strategies of child rearing as well as impressive ways of living that allow teenagers to enjoy the adolescent stage of their lives while contributing significantly to the welfare of their families and the community Throughout her discussion Bolin demonstrates that traditional practices of respect whose roots reach back to pre Columbian times are what enable the children of the high Andes to mature into dignified resilient and caring adults

Questioning History Greg Clingham,1998-07 Traditional eighteenth century paradigms of reason truth and nature underlie modern concepts of self gender sex etc that are challenged today in the name of a more liberated and pluralistic problematics This book is the first of two volumes of essays that identify this postmodern challenge It examines the historiography of postmodern phenomena in relation to the eighteenth century texts that they ventriloquize More essays on the topic are contained in Making History Bucknell Review Vol 42 No 1

Make It Plain Marvin L. Byrd,2012-07 What does it take to succeed in High School You have four years to prove you want to go to college It is called high school and getting there is not as difficult as you might think Make it Plain is an excellent resource for any middle or high school student dreaming of great things in the future In Make it Plain author Dr Marvin L Byrd plainly tells students how to graduate from high school with a key that will open the golden door that leads to a bright future Make it Plain will help students Create a vision Sustain effective effort toward making the vision a reality Properly establish priorities Manage work and play time effectively Make wise decisions And much more

Binge TV Emil Steiner,2023-03-06 For the first 70 years of television broadcasters dictated the terms of the viewing experience deciding not only when but how much of a program an audience could watch Binge watching destroyed that model by placing control of the experience in the hands of the viewer In this book media scholar Emil Steiner chronicles the technological and cultural struggle between broadcasters and viewers which reached a climax in the early 2010s with the emergence of streaming video platforms Through extensive interviews and archival research this groundbreaking project traces the history of binge watching from its idiot box roots to the new normal of Peak TV Along the way Steiner exposes the news campaigns waged by disruptive technology companies that exploited a long simmering revolutionary narrative of viewer empowerment to take over the broadcast industry Binge watching an individual's act of gaining control and losing control through the remote control exposed a debate that had been raging since the first TV set was turned on one that asks Who controls the story

Code 419 Hollywood John,2000-10 Stan Smith is head of the 419 organization a secret code of death and destruction Convicted of drug possession and distribution he is sent to jail and placed on house arrest So the jury thinks However he bears a grudge against the people whom he is convinced have messed up his life and family The suspect has killed three jurors and is bent on killing nine others What Special FBI Agents Joseph Kowalski and Amy Davidson discover is that the killer will stop at nothing to accomplish his mission The killer casts fear over New York City Agents Kowalski and Davidson must uncover the facts and people involved in the brutal murderous conspiracy

Nonfiction Book Literary history is a history of reading What happens during the act of reading is the subject of the branch of literary scholarship known as reader response theory Does the text guide the reader Does the reader operate independently of the text Questions like these shape the approach of the essays in this book edited by a scholar known for his groundbreaking work in using reader response theory as a window into Chicana and Chicano literature Manuel M Mart n Rodr guez has overseen several research projects aimed at documenting Chicana and Chicano reading practices and experiences Here he gathers diverse and passionate accounts of reading drawn from that research For many books served as refuges from the sorrows of a childhood marked by violence or parental abandonment Several of the contributors here salute the roles of teachers in introducing poetry and stories into their lives      Howard Zinn Davis D. Joyce,2010-05 This first ever biography of Zinn traces in broad strokes the story of his life placing special emphasis on his involvement in both the Civil Rights movement and the Viet Nam War protests      Culinary Art and Anthropology Joy Adapon,2008-09-15 Culinary Art and Anthropology is an anthropological study of food It focuses on taste and flavor using an original interpretation of Alfred Gell s theory of the art nexus Grounded in ethnography it explores the notion of cooking as an embodied skill and artistic practice The integral role and concept of flavor in everyday life is examined among cottage industry barbaocoa makers in Milpa Alta an outer district of Mexico City Women s work and local festive occasions are examined against a background of material on professional chefs who reproduce traditional Mexican cooking in restaurant settings Including recipes to allow readers to practice the art of Mexican cooking Culinary Art and Anthropology offers a sensual theoretically sophisticated model for understanding food anthropologically It will appeal to social scientists food lovers and those interested in the growing fields of food studies and the anthropology of the senses      American Identities Robert Pack,Jay Parini,1994 Contemporary commentators have observed that postmodern America is less a melting pot than a buffet table In American Identities people of diverse ethnic religious social gender and sexual backgrounds refuse to merge but insist on a multiplicity of well maintained identities editors Robert Pack and Jay Parini explain This sixth volume in the popular Bread Loaf Anthology series gathers more than three dozen voices who testify that there is no single American Experience but instead a multiplicity of experiences These poems stories and essays describe in occasionally stark sometimes humorous and often moving terms what it means to be black and American or gay and American or Latino and American or Jewish and American within this society      Becoming Utopian Tom Moylan,2020-11-26 A dream of a better world is a powerful human force that inspires activists artists and citizens alike In this book Tom Moylan one of the pioneering scholars of contemporary utopian studies explores the utopian process in its individual and collective trajectory from dream to realization Drawing on theorists such as Fredric Jameson Donna Haraway and Alain Badiou and science fiction writers such as Kim Stanley Robinson and China Mi ville Becoming Utopian develops its argument for sociopolitical action through studies that range from liberation theology ecological activism and radical pedagogy to the radical movements of 1968 Throughout Moylan speaks to the urgent need to confront and transform the global environmental economic political and cultural crises of our time      Mobilizing the Hordes Victor N. Gomia, 2012 This book draws on years of rich empirical research on radio drama production in Cameroon to offer a strikingly new perspective in Development Theatre discourse in Africa Chronicling the history and evolution of Development Theatre practice in Anglophone Africa and arguing for literary forms that address the basic everyday realities of ordinary people in a medium they understand the book revisits the crucial question of utilitarian literature in a continent that continues to brandish a begging bowl even as it celebrates fifty years of independence Radio Theatre's inherent latitude to reach the masses in a manner and matter that they identify with makes of it an invaluable albeit often neglected sub genre in the universe of Development Theatre Reaching an enlarged audience through radio drama productions plays that address the rustic ascetic and practical realities of the people is liberating Through radio plays and their capacity to provide for an enormous degree of authenticity ordinary people are able to enhance their self esteem Like main stream Development Theatre Radio Drama sets out to address the concerns of all in an all embracing approach that explores interactive learning characterized by continuous questioning of and adaptation to reality It disparages the omniscience of the superstructure meant to be perceived as indispensable and all knowing As a medium of development communication with unique aesthetic qualities found in and not limited to sound and silence Radio Drama creates events and condenses reality into dramatic constellations with a high sense of authenticity that invites its audience to participate in the creation process with a strong sense of direction in a story a plot and a moral This people oriented culture re animation process is the fertile ground for grassroots empowerment It is the point of departure for feasible development initiatives that this book explores      Lola Bensky Lily Brett, 2013-09-01 Lola Bensky is a nineteen year old rock journalist who irons her hair straight and asks a lot of questions A high school dropout she's not sure how she got the job but she's been sent by her Australian newspaper right to the heart of the London music scene at the most exciting time in music history 1967 Lola spends her days planning diets and interviewing rock stars In London Mick Jagger makes her a cup of tea Jimi Hendrix possibly propositions her and Cher borrows her false eyelashes At the Monterey International Pop Festival Lola props up Brian Jones and talks to Janis Joplin about sex In Los Angeles she discusses being overweight with Mama Cass and tries to pluck up the courage to ask Cher to return those false eyelashes Lola has an irrepressible curiosity but she begins to wonder whether the questions she asks these extraordinary young musicians are really a substitute for questions about her parents calamitous past that can't be asked or answered As Lola moves on through marriage motherhood psychoanalysis and a close relationship with an unexpected pair of detectives she discovers the question of what it means to be human is the hardest one for anyone including herself to answer      Reading Beyond the Book Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2013 This volume offers the first critical analysis of mass reading events and the contemporary meanings of reading in the UK USA and Canada based on original interviews and surveys with readers and event organisers The authors interrogate the enduring attraction of an old technology for readers community organizers and government agencies exploring the social practices inspired by the sharing of books in public spaces and revealing the complex ideological investments made by readers cultural workers institutions and the mass media in the meanings of reading
