True Stories Francis Spufford, 2017-01-01 An irresistible collection of favorite writings from an author celebrated for his bravura style and sheer unpredictability Francis Spufford's welcome first volume of collected essays gathers an array of his compelling writings from the 1990s to the present He makes use of a variety of encounters with particular places writers or books to address deeper questions relating to the complicated relationship between story telling and truth telling How must a nonfiction writer imagine facts vivifying them to bring them to life How must a novelist create a dependable world of story within which facts are in fact imaginary And how does a religious faith felt strongly to be true but not provably so draw on both kinds of writerly imagination Ranging freely across topics as diverse as the medieval legends of Cockaigne the Christian apologetics of C S Lewis and the tomb of Ayatollah Khomeini Spufford provides both fresh observations and thought provoking insights No less does he inspire an irresistible urge to turn the page and read on

The Crossover Novel Rachel Falconer, 2008-10-21 Highly recommended by Choice While crossover books such as Rowling's Harry Potter series have enjoyed enormous sales and media attention critical analysis of crossover fiction has not kept pace with the growing popularity of this new category of writing and reading Falconer remedies this lack with close readings of six major British works of crossover fiction and a wide ranging analysis of the social and cultural implications of the global crossover phenomenon A uniquely in depth study of the crossover novel Falconer engages with a ground breaking range of sources from primary texts to child and adult reader responses to cultural and critical theory     Julian Barnes Sebastian Groes, Peter Childs, 2011-06-30 Julian Barnes is one of the most refined British writers and distinguished intellectuals of his generation whose rich body of work has been awarded many literary prizes both in the UK and abroad This critical guide provides a wide range of current critical perspectives on Barnes work     Irish Urban Fictions Maria Beville, Deirdre Flynn, 2018-11-01 This collection is the first to examine how the city is written in modern Irish fiction Focusing on the multi faceted layered and ever changing topography of the city in Irish writing it brings together studies of Irish and Northern Irish fictions which contribute to a more complete picture of modern Irish literature and Irish urban cultural identities It offers a critical introduction to the Irish city as it represented in fiction as a plural space to mirror the plurality of contemporary Irish identities north and south of the border The chapters combine to provide a platform for new research in the field of Irish urban literary studies including analyses of the fiction of authors including James Joyce Roddy Doyle Kate O'Brien Hugo Hamilton Kevin Barry and Rosemary Jenkinson An exciting and diverse range of fictions is introduced and examined with the aim of generating a cohesive perspective on Irish urban fictions and to stimulate further discussion in this emerging area     Family Dancing David Leavitt, 2014-06-03 Thirty years ago David Leavitt first appeared on the literary scene with a gutsy story collection that stunned readers and reviewers Just twenty three he was hailed as a prodigy of sorts remarkably gifted The Washington Post with a genius for empathy The New York Times Book Review and a knowledge of others lives that a writer twice his age might envy USA Today Regardless of age wrote the New York Times few writers so effortlessly achieve the sense of maturity and earned compassion so evident in these pages In Territory a well intentioned liberal mother presiding over her local Parents of Lesbians and Gays chapter finds her acceptance of her son's sexuality shaken when he arrives home with a lover In the title story a family extended through divorce and remarriage dances together at the end of a summer party in the recognition that they are still bound by the very forces that split them apart Tender and funny these stories reveal the intricacies and subtleties of the dances in which we all engage     Fictional Feminism Kim A. Loudermilk, 2013-08-21 This book focuses on the ways in which second wave feminism has been represented in American popular culture and on the effects that these representations have had on feminism as a political movement Kim Loudermilk provides close readings of four best selling novels and their film adaptations According to Loudermilk each of these novels contains explicitly feminist characters and themes yet each presents a curiously ambivalent picture of feminism these texts at once take feminism seriously and subtly undercut its most central tenets This book argues that these texts create a kind of fictional feminism that recuperates feminism's radical potential thereby lessening the threat it presents to the status quo     Understanding Anne Enright Ana-Karina Schneider, 2020-07-28 Addressed to both literary scholars and the general reader Understanding Anne Enright is an introduction to the novels and stories of one of the most original and engaging contemporary Irish writers It analyses developments in Enright's writing comparing the evolution of themes and forms from one book to another contextualising her fiction and interrogating the impact of concepts such as postmodernism post feminism and post nationalism on the writing and reading of her work It particularly follows the evolution of Enright s treatment of the corporeality of women s experiences and its correlation with the embodied language of her fiction Thus this book shows how Enright s writing participates in the latest thematic and formal trends not only of Irish or British but also of Western literature Prizing Debate Anna Auguscik,2017-06-15 This book offers a study of the literary marketplace in the early 2000s Focusing on the Man Booker Prize and its impact on a novel s media attention Anna Auguscik analyses the mechanisms by which the Prize both recognises books that trigger debates and itself becomes the object of such debates Based on case studies of six novels by Aravind Adiga Margaret Atwood Sebastian Barry Mark Haddon DBC Pierre Zadie Smith and their attention profiles this work describes the Booker as a problem driven attention generating mechanism the influence of which can only be understood in relation to other participants in literary interaction This is Not Normal William Davies,2020-09-29 Since 2016 the UK has been in a crisis of its own making but this is not the fault of Brexit but of a larger problem of our politics The status of political parties the mainstream media public experts and officials have all been disrupted Along the way there have been shocking and exhilarating events the unforeseen 2017 election result the horrific details of Grenfell Tower and the Windrush scandal the sudden rise and fall of the Brexit Party As the mainstream of politics and media has come under attack the basic norms of public life have been thrown into question This Is Not Normal takes stock of a historical moment that no longer recognises itself Davies tells a story of the apparently chaotic and irrational events and extracts their underlying logic and long term causes What we are seeing is the effects of the 2008 financial crash the failure of the British neoliberal project the dying of Empire and the impact of the changes that technology and communications have had on the idea of the public sphere as well as the power of information This is an essential book for anyone who wants to make sense of this current moment Neo-Victorianism Ann Heilmann,Mark Llewellyn,2010-07-28 This field defining book offers an interpretation of the recent figurations of neo Victorianism published over the last ten years Using a range of critical and cultural viewpoints it highlights the problematic nature of this new genre and its relationship to re interpretative critical perspectives on the nineteenth century Consuming Books Stephen Brown,2006-04-18 Big name contributors such as Malcolm McDonald Julia Kirby and Morris Holbrook First book to focus on marketing in the publishing industry Stephen Brown is a well known name in this sphere of marketing Writers' & Artists' Yearbook 2018 Bloomsbury Publishing,2017-07-27 This bestselling guide to all areas of publishing and the media is completely revised and updated every year The Yearbook is packed with advice inspiration and practical guidance on who to contact and how to get published Foreword to the 2018 edition by David Lodge New articles in the 2018 edition on Writing popular history by Tom Holland Editing and writing by Diana Athill Ghostwriting by Gillian Stern Writing Thrillers by Kimberley Chambers The health and wellness market by Anita Bean Self publishing online by Harry Bingham How to choose your agent by Jo Unwin First Chapters by Emma Flint Pitching your ideas by Mike Unwin How to make a living by Alison Branagan All articles are reviewed and updated every year Key articles on Copyright Law Tax Publishing Agreements E publishing Publishing news and trends are fully updated every year Plus over 4 000 listings entries on who to contact and how across the media and publishing worlds In short it is Full of useful stuff J K Rowling     The Memory of Colonialism in Britain and France Itay Lotem,2021-03-12 This book explores national attitudes to remembering colonialism in Britain and France By comparing these two former colonial powers the author tells two distinct stories about coming to terms with the legacies of colonialism the role of silence and the breaking thereof Examining memory through the stories of people who incited public conversation on colonialism activists politicians journalists and professional historians this book argues that these actors mobilised the colonial past to make sense of national identity race and belonging in the present In focusing on memory as an ongoing politicised public debate the book examines the afterlife of colonial history as an element of political and social discourse that depends on actors goals and priorities A thought provoking and powerful read that explores the divisive legacies of colonialism through oral history this book will appeal to those researching imperialism collective memory and cultural identity     Reading by Numbers Katherine Bode,2012 Reading by Numbers Recalibrating the Literary Field is the first book to use digital humanities strategies to integrate the scope and methods of book and publishing history with issues and debates in literary studies By mining visualising and modelling data from AustLit an online bibliography of Australian literature that leads the world in its comprehensiveness and scope this study revises established conceptions of Australian literary history presenting new ways of writing about literature and publishing and a new direction for digital humanities research The case studies in this book offer insight into a wide range of features of the literary field including trends and cycles in the gender of novelists the formation of fictional genres and literary canons and the relationship of Australian literature to other national literatures     A Fatal Addiction Thomas Block,2012 America one of the most religious countries in the world is also the most violent Do God and war define the American spirit as much as apple pie and baseball This unsettling book illustrates how bellicose war like language is used to explain the spiritual quest It explores the violence of God tradition as it exists in all religions including Buddhism and then examines how this dynamic is flipped with political leaders using spiritual and religious language to sell war to the general public Although God and religion have often been used to sell war in the United States this has been especially true since 9 11 After surveying the relationship of war and the spiritual quest in the major world religions this study concludes with an overview of how that dynamic has affected the contemporary American public discourse on war Does this intermingling of war and spirituality prepare the population for the coming of war The institutional blending of the sacred and human aggression appear to be fundamental to human society The second section of the book concentrates on the political language and speeches of American politicians since 2002 following the run up to the Iraq war and its continuation over the past decade showing how this mystical war conflation permeates American society
