Tourism and Gentrification in Contemporary

Metropolises Maria Gravari-Barbas, Sandra Guinand, 2017-06-14 Tourism gentrification is a critical shaping force of socioeconomic and contemporary urban landscapes This book aims to be the first substantive text on this subject explaining the multiple and complex relationships between tourism and gentrification and their outcomes and manifestations in contemporary metropolises This is achieved by drawing on in depth case analyses addressing the different issues at stake Part I deals with the manifestations of tourism gentrification and the ways it affects urban landscapes through heritagization and urban regeneration strategies Part II looks at the correlations between tourism gentrification and culture Finally the last two parts aim to identify and examine forms and expressions of tourism gentrification distinguishing among the actors beneficiaries and victims of the phenomenon while looking at its implications for intra metropolitan territories and metropolitan governance The book approaches these issues in an innovative way by looking at a variety of metropolises in a diverse range of countries and by dealing with the different relations and management issues generated by gentrification in relation to tourism Through interdisciplinary approaches this groundbreaking text sheds light on the role tourism plays in contemporary metropolises furthering knowledge of urban tourism For these reasons it will be of particular interest to scholars and students of tourism urban studies geography anthropology and sociology Tourism Imaginaries Noel B. Salazar, Nelson H. H. Graburn, 2014-06-01 It is hard to imagine tourism without the creative use of seductive as well as restrictive imaginaries about peoples and places These socially shared assemblages are collaboratively produced and consumed by a diverse range of actors around the globe As a nexus of social practices through which individuals and groups establish places and peoples as credible objects of tourism tourism imaginaries have yet to be fully explored Presenting innovative conceptual approaches this volume advances ethnographic research methods and critical scholarship regarding tourism and the imaginaries that drive it The various authors contribute methodologically as well as conceptually to anthropology's grasp of the images forces and encounters of the contemporary world

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Lake Pavin T  lesphore Sime-Ngando, Pierre Boivin, Emmanuel Chapron, Didier Jezequel, Michel Meybeck, 2016-10-31 This book represents the first multidisciplinary scientific work on a deep volcanic maar lake in comparison with other similar temperate lakes The syntheses of the main characteristics of Lake Pavin are for the first time set in a firmer footing comparative approach encompassing regional national European and international aquatic science contexts It is a unique lake because of its permanently anoxic monimolimnion and furthermore because of its small surface area its substantially low human influence and by the fact that it does not have a river inflow The book reflects the scientific research done on the general limnology history origin volcanology and geological environment as well as on the geochemistry and biogeochemical cycles Other chapters focus on the biology and microbial ecology whereas the sedimentology and paleolimnology are also given attention This volume will be of special interest to researchers and advanced students primarily in the fields of limnology biogeochemistry and aquatic ecology
