Misery Loves Company Mia M. Spangenberg, 2006 Juoksuhaudantie Kari Hotakainen, 2010-06-01 Palkittu romaani kivusta talosta ja taipumattomuudesta kotirintamamies Matti Virtasen kujanjuoksu suomalaisen unelman perässä kyllä kalliiksi Finlandia palkinto 2002 Pohjoismaiden neuvoston kirjallisuuspalkinto 2004 Performative Histories, Foundational Fictions Anu Koivunen, 2003-09-17 Films are integral to national imagination Promotional publicity markets domestic films not only as entertaining exciting or moving but also as topical and relevant in different ways Reviewers assess new films with reference to other films and cultural products as well as social and political issues Through such interpretive framings by contemporaries and later generations popular cinema is embedded both in national imagination and endless intertextual and intermedial frameworks Moreover films themselves become signs to be cited and recycled as illustrations of cultural social and political history as well as national mentality In the age of television old films continue to live as history and memory In Performative Histories Foundational Fictions Anu Koivunen analyzes the historicity as well as the intertextuality and intermediality of film reception by focusing on a cycle of Finnish family melodrama and its key role in thinking about gender sexuality nation and history Close reading posters advertisements publicity stills trailers review journalism and critical commentary she demonstrates how The Women of Niskavuori 1938 and 1958 Loviisa 1946 Heta Niskavuori 1952 Aarne Niskavuori 1954 Niskavuori Fights 1957 and Niskavuori 1984 have operated as sites for imagining our agrarian past our Heimat and heritage as well as the strong Finnish woman or the weak man in crisis Based on extensive empirical research Koivunen argues that the Niskavuori films have mobilized readings in terms of history and memory feminist nationalism and men's movement left wing allegories and right wing morality as well as realism and melodrama Through processes of citation repetition and recycling the films have acquired not only a heterogeneous and contradictory interpretive legacy but also an affective force Names in Focus Terhi Ainiola, Minna Saarelma, Paula Sjöblom, 2012 Names in Focus delves deep into the vast field of Finnish onomastics covering place names personal names animal names commercial names and names in literature It provides the history and current trends in this area of research and also supplements international terminology with the Finnish point of view on the subject Brimming with examples and clear explanations the book can be enjoyed by the most studious of researchers as well as the casual reader who has a genuine interest in the study of names Culture, Suicide, and the Human Condition Marja-Liisa Honkasalo, Miira Tuominen, 2014-03-01 Suicide is a puzzling phenomenon Not only is its demarcation problematic but it also eludes simple explanation The cultures in which suicide mortality is high do not necessarily have much else in common and neither is a single mental illness such as depression sufficient to lead a person to suicide In a word despite its statistical regularity suicide is unpredictable on the individual level The main argument emerging from this collection is that suicide should not be understood as a separate realm of pathological behavior but as a form of human action As such it is always dependent on the decision that the individual makes in a cultural ethical and socio economic context but the context never completely determines the decision This book also argues that cultural narratives concerning suicide have a problematic double function in addition to enabling the community to make sense of self inflicted death they also constitute a blueprint depicting suicide as a solution to common human problems
