Take a Sad Song James Campion, 2022-06-01 In Take a Sad Song The Emotional Currency of Hey Jude James Campion dives deeply into the song's origins recording visual presentation impact and eventual influence while also discovering what makes Hey Jude a classic musical expression of personal comfort and societal unity conceived by a master songwriter Paul McCartney Within its melodic brilliance and lyrical touchstones of empathy and nostalgia resides McCartney's personal and professional relationship with his childhood friend and songwriting partner John Lennon and their simultaneous pursuit of the women who would complete them There are also clues to the growing turmoil within the Beatles and their splintering generation scarred by war assassination and virulent protest Campion's journey into the song includes the insights of experts in the fields of musicology sociology philosophy psychology and history Campion also reveals commentary from noted Beatles authors biographers music historians and journalists and finally a peek into the craft of songwriting from a host of talented composers across several generations Take a Sad Song is a tribute to how a song can define inspire and affect us in ways we do not always fully comprehend as well as a celebration of a truly amazing track in the Beatles canon that reveals one band's genius and underscores its lasting voice in our cultural and musical landscape Giorgio Gomelsky 'For Your Love' Francis Dumaourier, 2024-02-28 Giorgio Gomelsky was at the centre of the counterculture in 60s London and 70s Paris before running a studio for avant garde musicians in New York He was the original manager of the Rolling Stones and the Yardbirds in London then managed the French supergroup Magma and developed the career of Gong Dumaourier recounts his friend Gomelsky's love of life his dynamism and the creativity that made him push the envelope With a keen eye for talent Gomelsky's ideas helped shape the rock music we know and love today acting as a catalyst for change and innovation About the author FRANCIS DUMAURIER Born and raised in the neighbourhood of Montmartre in Paris Francis wrote his Portrait of Jack Kerouac after Desolation Angels thesis for his Masters at the University of Paris X before going on the road to travel and see the world After a year in the Amazon jungle of Colombia as a rainforest safari guide he spent 5 years in Rio de Janeiro working in the travel and hotel industries Moving to New York City where he still lives he began working in the entertainment industry first as a host and producer of primetime daily programs on Manhattan Cable TV and then as an actor in films tv and voice overs He spent his first weekend in America at the original Woodstock Festival Since then he has also hosted and produced The Wine CD as a Compagnon des Vins de Bordeaux with a group of 14 other wine specialists Fluent in 4 languages English French Spanish and Portuguese and in the York and Scottish rites of Freemasonry Francis also loves to play rock n roll music on his Stratocaster guitar and Marshall amp He was a close friend of Gomelsky for over 30 years and this biography was originally published in France An Avid's Guide to Sixties Songwriters Peter Dunbavan, 2017-02-28 An essential reference book for sixties music lovers this encyclopedic overview includes detailed chart statistics and biographical information for eighty songwriters and covers around two thousand songs some of which are among the greatest ever written Dark Tourism and Crime Derek Dalton,2014-11-20 Dark tourism has become widespread and diverse It has passed into popular culture vernacular deployed in guide books as a short hand descriptor for sites that are associated with death suffering and trauma However whilst books have been devoted to dark tourism as a general topic no single text has sought to explore dark tourism in spaces where crime mass murder genocide State sanctioned torture and violence has occurred as an organising theme Dark Tourism and Crime explores the socio cultural contours of this unique type of tourism and explains why spaces places where crime has occurred fascinate and attract tourists The book is marked by an ethics of respect for the suffering a place has experienced and an imperative to learn something tangible about the history and legacy of that suffering Based on empirical ethnographic research it takes the reader from the remnants of Auschwitz concentration camp to the tranquil Australian island of Tasmania to explore precisely what things a dark tourist might encounter architecture art installations gardens memorials physical traces of crime and how these things invoke and evoke past crimes This volume furthers understanding of dark tourism and will be of interest to students researchers and academics of criminology tourism and cultural studies Arrived at Last Gert Niers,2014-03-21 After many years of publishing journalistic and scholarly articles Gert Niers decided to break away from this format and to apply to his writing a more personal style suitable for autobiography and memoirs Arrived at Last is the story of his life in Germany after World War Two and then in America the country of his choice He tells his autobiography in an uncomplicated colloquial fashion the way one would talk perhaps at a bar table surrounded by friends This approach allows him to comment on many experiences and aspects of life He also reminisces about his excursions into France Belgium and the Netherlands and later on about the many people he met in the German and German Jewish community of New York City Everything is seen from a very personal perspective confession style Still the author has rendered historical facts as precisely and correctly as it was possible to him His descriptions and conclusions are those of an experienced observer His book is a contribution to minority and immigrant literature but also a cultural commentary about life in Europe and the U S Industrial Relations United States.

contributors, Believing in Order to See Jean-Luc Marion,2017-04-03 Faith and reason especially in Roman Catholic thought are less contradictory today than ever But does the supposed opposition even make sense to begin with One can lose faith but surely not because one gains in reason Some in fact lose faith when reason is not able to make sense of the experiences of our lives We very quickly realize that reason does not understand everything Immense areas remain incomprehensible and irrational which we abandon to belief and opinion Soon we definitively renounce thinking what that has been excluded from the realm of the thinkable Ideological nightmares arise from this slumber of reason Thus the separation between faith and reason too quickly taken as self evident and even natural is born from a lack of rationality an easy capitulation of reason before what is supposedly unthinkable Rather than lose faith through excessive rationality we often lose rationality because faith is too quickly excluded from the realm that it claims to open that of revelation We lose reason by losing faith Examining such topics as the role of the intellectual in the church the rationality of faith the infinite worth and incomprehensibility of the human the phenomenality of the sacraments and the phenomenological nature of miracles and of revelation more broadly this book spans the range of Marion s thought on Christianity Throughout he stresses that faith has its own rationality structured according to the logic of the gift that calls forth a response of love and devotion through kenotic abandon
