,1924 Jurisdictional Battlefields Mario Graña Taborelli, 2024-09-20 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM This book examines three expeditions by the Spanish to the borders of Charcas a district that covers present day Bolivia and the northwest of Argentina in the second half of the sixteenth century using an approach that has not been attempted until now Scholarship on these events has framed them as part of a gradual top down process of centralisation driven by the Crown to extend its power and build a colonial state in the Americas This book challenges that view approaching the expeditions through an analysis of the political culture that underpinned them It explores the events within the process of installation and consolidation of royal jurisdiction understood here as the authority to establish law and deliver justice in a remote area This was a process achieved through coercion and violence as well as negotiation and consensus that involved both the Spanish and indigenous peoples and that frequently created overlapping jurisdictions via downscaling of politics and dispersal of power Jurisdictional politics were decided and settled in battlefields and courts and involved the theatricalization of power to make a distant monarch present which paradoxically made such absence the more evident The book is an invitation to re dimension the scope of Spain's empire Radio News ,1930 Popular Mechanics ,1975-08 Popular Mechanics inspires
