

Mise en forme des caractères

ou modification de l'aspect des caractères

Les caractères sont mis en forme en agissant sous quatre aspects :

la police

la taille

les attributs

la couleur

La police de caractères est la combinaison d'une fonte ou famille de caractères, d'une taille de caractères et d'un style.

Familles de caractères

Un des éléments les plus distinctifs d'un document est la nature des caractères utilisés. Les caractères sont la représentation visuelle de votre message verbal.

Une famille de caractères est un ensemble de lettres, de chiffres et de symboles caractérisés par un style précis. Il existe aujourd'hui des centaines de familles de caractères qui portent généralement le nom de leur créateur ou inventeur.

Une famille de caractères représente un style ou un graphisme particulier (ex. : Arial), alors que le terme police identifie une famille de caractères de façon encore plus spécifique, par exemple, Arial, Arial Black, Arial Narrow et Arial Rounded MT Bold.

Taille de la police

La taille d'une police est définie par la hauteur du caractère qui se mesure à partir du haut du plus long jambage supérieur jusqu'au bas du plus long jambage inférieur. La valeur est donnée en points, où 28,5 points équivalent à un centimètre (72 points équivalent à un pouce). Le texte d'une lettre ou d'un rapport est généralement produit en 10 ou 12 points.

Différentes familles de caractères de même taille n'auront pas nécessairement la même taille réelle à cause des différentes hauteurs de jambages. C'est le cas des caractères sans empattement pour lesquels les jambages supérieurs et inférieurs sont petits alors que la hauteur « x » est grande.

Style de la police

Le style d'une police est une variante esthétique de la police qui permet de produire un effet de contraste ou de mettre du texte en évidence. Les options offertes sont: normal, gras, italique et gras italique.

Forme des caractères

La forme des caractères des différentes polices se présente avec ou sans empattement: un empattement est un trait ou un épaississement plus ou moins prononcé au bas et au haut des caractères qui donne une apparence plus raffinée au texte. Cet empattement crée une ligne imaginaire sous les lettres, permettant de guider l'œil et de faciliter la lecture

Couleur du texte

L'option de couleur vous permet de changer la couleur ou les tons de gris de votre texte. Il va sans dire que vous devez posséder une imprimante couleur pour profiter de la fonction couleur. Toutefois, avec une imprimante en noir et blanc, les polices de caractères peuvent être ombragées en modifiant les tons de gris. En général, les caractères ombragés sont combinés avec une
