Female Intimacies in Seventeenth-Century French Literature Marianne Legault, 2016-04-15 Examining literary discourses on female friendship and intimacy in seventeenth century France this study takes as its premise the view that unlike men women have been denied for centuries the possibility of same sex friendship The author explores the effect of this homosocial and homoprivileged heritage on the deployment and constructions of female friendship and homoerotic relationships as thematic narratives in works by male and female writers in seventeenth century France The book consists of three parts the first surveys the history of male thinkers denial of female friendship concluding with a synopsis of the cultural representations of female same sex practices The second analyzes female intimacy and homoeroticism as imagined appropriated and finally repudiated by Honoré d'Urfé's pastoral novel L'Astrée and Isaac de Benserade's seemingly lesbian friendly comedy Iphis et Iante The third turns to unprecedented depictions of female intimate and homoerotic bonds in Madeleine de Scudéry's novel Mathilde and Charlotte Rose de Caumont de La Force's fairy tale Plus Belle que Fée This study reveals a female literary genealogy of intimacies between women in seventeenth century France and adds to the research in lesbian and queer studies fields in which pre eighteenth century French literary texts are rare

Revolutionary Love in Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century France Allan H. Pasco, 2016-12-05 In this innovative study the author carves out a new field a sociology of literature in which he offers insightful commentary about the nexus of literature and society Calling on history sociology and psychology as well as literature as points of reference Allan Pasco examines the conceptual shift in the ideal of love in eighteenth century France Pasco explores the radical though gradual changes that occurred during the Enlightenment with respect to how the emotion of love was viewed Earlier love had been subordinate to the demands of family king and deity passion was dangerous and to be avoided But over time individual happiness became the greatest good and passion the measure of love Authors as diverse as Marivaux Marmontel Rousseau Bachelard d'Arnaud Pigault Lebrun and Madame de Staël make it clear that the ideal of rapturous love did not live up to its billing it did not last and it brought destructive fantasies an epidemic of disease the scourge of divorce and considerable anguish Still as Pasco points out passion became and remained the ideal and the Romantics were left to plumb its nature
