Les Brigades Roses:

The Lion and the Rose Kevin Shannon, 2017-05-17 The Lion and the Rose tells the story of an infantry battalion in the Great War Based on many unpublished sources the book narrates the individual parts played by nearly 2 000 of those who served with the 4th King's Own Royal Lancaster Regiment from the day that war was declared in 1914 until the armistice in 1918 and in a few cases the stories of men whose war continued long afterwards The battalion first saw action in Festubert in May 1915 and went on to fight on the Somme the Ypres Salient and Gillemont Farm though the battalion's epic stand at Givenchy on 9 April 1918 must rate as one of the greatest defensive actions of the war Using contemporary combat reports many of the major actions are described down to individual platoon level The Lion and the Rose does not just concentrate on the major battles but also examines everyday life in the trenches Appendices give the most complete battalion roll to date and list those awarded medals for their bravery and also those nominated unsuccessfully for recognition Illustrations 28 black and white photographs and 13 in text maps Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges M li s Alice Guy Blach  and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and Ren  Clair to French New Wave artists such as Fran ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Campagnes de la r volution fran aise dans les Pyr n es orientales et description topographique de cette moiti  de la cha ne pyr n enne par J.
