Les Chats Existentiels (Existential Cats) Lori Susanne, 2010-09-25 What we have here are mirrors You can dismiss this as just a little cat book but if you do you will miss all the fun Its not and if you have the slightest interest in philosophy art and humanity well then you cant What you do is you get a cup of coffee au lait perhaps then you sit down to explore this deceptively elegant investigation If you really get what this book is doing you will probably give it to your best friends Finally you read it again sometime later for all the things you missed the first time Like the hep cat said If you have to ask about jazz youll never understand it

Nominal Arguments and Language Variation Li Julie Jiang, 2021 Nominal Arguments in Language Variation investigates nominal arguments in classifier languages refuting the long held claim that classifier languages do not have overt article determiners Li Julie Jiang brings the typologically unique Nuosu Yi a classifier language that has an overt definite determiner D to the forefront of the theoretical investigation By comparing nominal arguments in Nuosu Yi to those in Mandarin a well studied classifier language that has no overt evidence of an article determiner Jiang provides new accounts of variation among classifier languages and extends the parameters to argument formation in general In addition to paying particular attention to these two classifier languages the discussion of nominal arguments also covers a wider range of classifier languages and number marking languages from Romance Germanic and Slavic to Hindi Using a broad cross linguistic perspective and detailed empirical analysis Nominal Arguments in Language Variation is an important contribution to research on classifier languages and the fields of theoretical syntax semantics language variation and linguistic typology

Adverbs of Quantification Henriëtte de Swart, 1991 Proceedings of the 11th West Coast Conference on Formal Linguistics Jonathan Mead, 1993 The Negative Existential Cycle Ljuba Veselinova, Arja Hamari, 2022-12-20 In 1991 William Croft suggested that negative existentials typically lexical expressions that mean not exist not have are one possible source for negation markers and gave his hypothesis the name Negative Existential Cycle NEC It is a variationist model based on cross linguistic data For a good twenty years following its formulation it was cited at face value without ever having been tested by historical comparative data Over the last decade Ljuba Veselinova has worked on testing the model in a comparative perspective and this edited volume further expands on her work The collection presented here features detailed studies of several language families such as Bantu Chadic and Indo European A number of articles focus on the micro variation and attested historical developments within smaller groups and clusters such as Arabic Mandarin and Cantonese and Nanaic Finally variation and historical developments in specific languages are discussed for Ancient Hebrew Ancient Egyptian Moksha Mordvin Uralic Bashkir Turkic Kalmyk Mongolic three Pama Nyungan languages O dam Southern Uto Aztecan and Tacana Takanan Amazonian Bolivia The book is concluded by two chapters devoted to modeling cyclical processes in language change from different theoretical perspectives Key notions discussed throughout the book include affirmative and negative existential constructions the expansion of the latter into verbal negation and subsequently from more specific to more general markers of negation Nominalizations as well as the uses of negative existentials as standalone negative answers figure among the most frequent pathways whereby negative existentials evolve as general negation markers The operation of the Negative Existential Cycle appears partly genealogically conditioned as the cycle is found to iterate regularly within some families but never starts in others as is the case in Bantu In addition other special negation markers such as nominal negators are found to undergo similar processes i e they expand into the verbal domain and thereby develop into more general negation markers The book provides rich information on a specific path of the evolution of negation on cyclical processes in language change and it shows cases the historical comparative method in a modern setting

Relating Events in Narrative: Typological and contextual perspectives Sven Strömquist, Ludo Th Verhoeven, 2004 This follow up volume to the frog story studies book Relating Events in Narrative A Cross Linguistic Developmental Study 1994 is divided into two main parts Part one focuses on crosslinguistic perspectives whilst part two offers a variety of theoretical and methodological perspectives

Relating Events in Narrative, Volume 2 Ludo Verhoeven, Sven Strömquist, 2004-02-13 Relating Events in Narrative Volume 2 Typological and Contextual Perspectives edited by Sven Strömquist and Ludo Verhoeven is the much anticipated follow up volume to Ruth Berman and Dan Slobin's successful frog story studies book Relating Events in Narrative A Crosslinguistic Developmental Study 1994 Working closely with Ruth Berman and Dan Slobin the new editors have brought together a wide range of scholars who inspired by the 1994 book have all used Mercer Mayer's Frog Where Are You as a basis for their research The new book which is divided into two parts features a broad linguistic and cultural diversity Contributions focusing on crosslinguistic perspectives make up the first part of the book This part is concluded by Dan Slobin with an analysis and overview discussion of factors of linguistic typology in frog story research The second part offers a variety of theoretical and methodological perspectives all dealing with contextual variation of narrative construction in a wide sense variation across medium modality speech writing signing genre variation the specific frog story narrative compared to other genres frog story narrations from the perspective of theory of mind and from the perspective of bilingualism and second language acquisition Several of the contributions to the new book manuscript also deal with developmental perspectives but in distinction to the 1994 book that is not the only focused issue The second part is initiated by Ruth Berman with an analysis of the role of context in developing narrative abilities The new book represents a rich overview and illustration of recent advances in theoretical and methodological approaches to the crosslinguistic study of narrative discourse A red thread throughout the book is that crosslinguistic variation is not merely a matter of variation in form but also in content and aspects of cognition A recurrent perspective on language and thought is that of Dan Slobin's theory of thinking for speaking an approach to cognitive consequences of linguistic diversity The book ends with an epilogue by Herbert Clark Variations on a Rumanian Theme

Language Description Informed by Theory Rob Pensalfini, Myfany Turpin, Diana Guillemin, 2014-01-15 This volume explores how linguistic theories inform the ways in which languages are described Theories as representations of linguistic categories guide the field linguist to look for various phenomena without presupposing their necessary existence and provide the tools to account for various sets of data across different languages A goal of linguistic description is to represent the full range of language structures for any given language The chapters in this book cover various sub disciplines of linguistics including phonetics phonology morphology syntax semantics language acquisition and anthropological linguistics drawing upon theoretical approaches such as prosodic Phonology Enhancement theory Distributed Morphology Minimalist syntax Lexical Functional Grammar and Kinship theory The languages described in this book include Australian languages Pama Nyungan and non Pama Nyungan Romance languages as well as English This volume will be of interest to researchers in both descriptive and theoretical linguistics

On Information Structure, Meaning and Form Kerstin Schwabe, Susanne Winkler, 2007-03-08 This collection of articles offers a new and compelling perspective on the interface connecting syntax phonology semantics and pragmatics At the core of this volume is the hypothesis that information structure represents the common interface of these grammatical components Information structure is investigated here from different theoretical viewpoints yielding typologically relevant information and structural generalizations In the volume's introductory chapter the editors identify two central approaches to information structure the formal and the interpretive view The remainder of the book is organized accordingly The first part examines information structure and grammar concentrating on generalizations across languages The second part investigates information structure and pragmatics concentrating on clause structure and context Through concrete analyses of topic focus and related phenomena across different languages the contributors add new and convincing evidence to the research on information structure

Beyond the Bible, Beyond the West Hanz Gutierrez Salazar, 2023-12-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Reading can become the grave of meaning or the place of its resurrection It becomes a tomb when meanings follow one another uninterruptedly but in an automatic mechanical predictable and tautological way It becomes a tomb when reading becomes calculation when the result excludes and erases surprise and mystery Instead it's the place of resurrection when meanings are not automatic but intermittent unpredictable fragile and fragmentary when reading becomes like childbirth an experience marked by fatigue and suffering but in the expectation of something new and unique Our reflection is an essay of ontological hermeneutics it is critical of textual positivism which makes the univocity and clarity of a text the main goal of its task and also of cultural positivism a cultural matrix that elevates univocity and clarity as the ultimate goal of contemporary systems This essay indirectly sketches a cultural critique and not only a theological one Means medium and guarantor of this ontological indelible reserve are ambivalence and paradox We will try to follow the trace of these throughout the hermeneutic arc and not only at its beginning

Grasping Shadows William Chapman Sharpe, 2017-08-04 What's in a shadow Menace seduction or salvation Immaterial but profound shadows lurk everywhere in literature and the visual arts signifying everything from the treachery of appearances to the unfathomable power of God From Plato to Picasso from Rembrandt to Welles and Warhol from Lord of the Rings to the latest video game shadows act as central players in the drama of Western culture Yet because they work silently artistic shadows often slip unnoticed past audiences and critics Conceived as an accessible introduction to this elusive phenomenon Grasping Shadows is the first book that offers a general theory of how all shadows function in texts and visual media Arguing that shadow images take shape within a common cultural field where visual and verbal meanings overlap William Sharpe ranges widely among classic and modern works revealing the key motifs that link apparently disparate works such as those by Fra Angelico and James Joyce Clementina Hawarden and Kara Walker Charles Dickens and Kumi Yamashita Showing how real world shadows have shaped the meanings of shadow imagery Grasping Shadows guides the reader through the techniques used by writers and artists to represent shadows from the Renaissance onward The last chapter traces how shadows impact the art of the modern city from Renoir and Zola to film noir and projection systems that capture the shadows of passers by on streets around the globe Extending his analysis to contemporary street art popular songs billboards and shadow theatre Sharpe demonstrates a practical way to grasp the dark side that looms all around us Redefining Indefinites Carmen Dobrovie-Sorin, Claire Beyssade, 2012-04-27 This volume explores the interpretation of indefinites and the constraints on their distribution by paying particular attention to key issues in the interface between syntax and semantics the relation between the semantic properties of indefinite determiners and the denotation of indefinite DPs their scope and their behaviour in generic and conditional sentences Examples come from French other Romance languages and English Central to the proposed analyses is a distinction between two types of entities individualized entities and amounts Weak indefinites are analyzed as existential generalized quantifiers over amounts and strong indefinites as either Skolem terms or generalized quantifiers over individualized entities The up to date review of the literature and the new falsifiable proposals contained in this book will be of particular interest to linguistics students and scholars interested in the cross linguistic semantics of indefinites Eroticism in French Literature ,1983 Language Acquisition Susan Foster-Cohen, 2009-07-16 This book provides a snapshot of the field of language acquisition at the beginning of the 21st Century It represents the multiplicity of approaches that characterize the field and provides a review of current topics and debates as well as addressing some of the connections between sub fields and possible future directions for research The Life of the City Julian Brigstocke, 2016-03-03 Could the vitality of embodied experience create a foundation for a new form of revolutionary authority The Life of the City is a bold and innovative reassessment of the early urban avant garde movements that sought to re imagine and reinvent the experiential life of the city Constructing a ground breaking theoretical analysis of the relationships between biological life urban culture and modern forms of biopolitical experiential authority Julian Brigstocke traces the failed attempts of Parisian radicals to turn the crisis of authority in late nineteenth century Paris into an opportunity to invent new forms of urban commons The most comprehensive account to date of the spatial politics of the literary artistic and anarchist groups that settled in the Montmartre area of Paris after the suppression of the 1871 Paris Commune The Life of the City analyses the reasons why laughter emerged as the unlikely tool through which Parisian bohemians attempted to forge a new non representational biopolitics of sensation Ranging from the carnivalesque performances of artistic cabarets such as the Chat Noir to the laughing violence of anarchist terrorism The Life of the City is a timely analysis of the birth of a carnivalesque politics that remains highly influential in contemporary urban movements

Les Chats Existentiels - Existential Cats Lori Susanne,2010-09      Proceedings of the ... West Coast Conference on Formal Linguistics ,1992      On Literary Plasticity Heather H. Yeung,2020-05-15 On Literary Plasticity Readings with Kafka in Ecology Voice and Object Life calls to Franz Kafka and in particular Die Sorge des Hausvaters for aid in charting the long reach of plastic on the human mind and world In this book Heather H Yeung builds a past and future ecology of plastic arguing that it is through a deep reading of literature that we can begin to understand more clearly what it is that plastic means to us today asking under the auspices of the idea of literary plasticity what are the true depths of our twenty first century fascination with plastic How did we become so entangled How can we come to a better understanding of plastic s role in our imagination our environment and our lives What can literature teach us in this respect Why should we care

The Penn Review of Linguistics ,1992      Critical Theory to Structuralism David Ingram,2014-09-11 Philosophy in the middle of the 20th Century between 1920 and 1968 responded to the cataclysmic events of the time Thinkers on the Right turned to authoritarian forms of nationalism in search of stable forms of collective identity will and purpose Thinkers on the Left promoted egalitarian forms of humanism under the banner of international communism Others saw these opposed tendencies as converging in the extinction of the individual and sought to retrieve the ideals of the Enlightenment in ways that critically acknowledged the contradictions of a liberal democracy racked by class cultural and racial conflict Key figures and movements discussed in this volume include Schmitt Adorno and the Frankfurt School Arendt Benjamin Bataille French Marxism Black Existentialism Saussure and Structuralism Levi Strauss Lacan and Late Pragmatism These individuals and schools of thought responded to this modernity crisis in different ways but largely focused on what they perceived to be liberal democracy s betrayal of its own rationalist ideals of freedom equality and fraternity
