Five Differences Between Nsfas And Other Student Loans:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt The Next Twenty-five Years David Lee Featherman, Marvin Krislov, Martin Hall, 2009-12-08 A penetrating exploration of affirmative action s continued place in 21st century higher education The Next Twenty five Years assembles the viewpoints of some of the most influential scholars educators university leaders and public officials Its comparative essays range the political spectrum and debates in two nations to survey the legal political social economic and moral dimensions of affirmative action and its role in helping higher education contribute to a just equitable and vital society David L Featherman is Professor of Sociology and Psychology and Founding Director of the Center for Advancing Research and Solutions for Society at the University of Michigan Martin Hall is Vice Chancellor of the University of Salford Greater Manchester and previously was Deputy Vice Chancellor at the University of Cape Town Marvin Krislov is President of Oberlin College and previously was Vice President and General Counsel at the University of Michigan The Youth Dividend Jan H. Hofmeyr, 2012 Higher Education, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Perils and Promises The State of Online Education Goals and Challenges of Online Learning and Innovations in the Age of COVID It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Cost-sharing and Accessibility in Higher Education: A Fairer Deal? Pedro N. Teixeira,D. Bruce Johnstone,Maria J. Rosa,Hans Vossensteyn,2007-11-23 Higher education finances lie at the crossroads in many Western countries Hence worldwide the most common approach to the need for increasing revenue was to use some form or forms of cost sharing or the shift of some of the higher educational per student costs from governments and taxpayers to parents and students This raises several important challenges to higher education systems First there is the political and social controversy associated with most forms of cost sharing particularly with tuition fees Secondly there are important issues in terms of the broad context of social policy such as the role of families and students and the relationship that the state establishes with each of them Third there is the comparison of alternative instruments of cost sharing and the direct and indirect effects of each of them notably in terms of educational equality Overall underlying cost sharing debates are fundamental questions about social choice individual opportunities and the role of government in society

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr.,Vijay Reddy,2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy

Student Financing of Higher Education Donald Heller,Claire Callender,2013-06-07 The financing of higher education is undergoing great change in many countries around the world In recent years many countries are moving from a system where the costs of funding higher education are shouldered primarily by taxpayers through government subsidies to one where students pay a larger share of the costs There are a number of factors driving these trends including A push for massification of higher education in the recognition that additional revenue streams are required above and beyond those funds available from governments in order to achieve higher participation rates Macroeconomic factors which lead to constraints on overall government revenues Political factors which manifest in demands for funding of over services thus restricting the funding available for higher tertiary education A concern that the returns to higher education accrue primarily to the individual rather than to society and thus students should bear more of the burden of paying for it This volume will help to contribute to an understanding of how these trends occur in various countries and regions around the world and the impact they have on higher education institutions students and society as a whole With contributions for the UK USA South Africa and China this vital new book gives a truly global picture of the rapidly changing situation Access to Success and Social Mobility through Higher Education Stuart Billingham, 2018-08-23 This collection of essays illuminates the benefits drawbacks challenges and opportunities of the push to widen access to success and social mobility through university and other post secondary education experiences in the UK and internationally

Electronic Government and the Information Systems Perspective Andrea Kö, Enrico Francesconi, Adeleh Asemi, Gabriele Kotsis, A Min Tjoa, Ismail Khalil, 2023-07-28 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 12th International Conference on Electronic Government and the Information Systems Perspective EGOVIS 2023 which took place in Penang Malaysia during August 28 30 2023 The 8 full papers presented together with 1 short paper were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 17 submissions They were organized in topical sections as follows e Government strategy artificial intelligence

Transforming Transformation in Research and Teaching at South African Universities Rob Pattman, Ronelle Carolissen, 2018-12-21 What is transformation in contemporary South African higher education How can it be facilitated through research and pedagogic practices These questions are addressed in this edited collection by established academics and emerging research students from nine South African universities The chapters give us access to students worlds how they construct experience and navigate their complex spheres on and off campus By engaging with students as knowledge producers we transform popular ways of thinking about race gender class sexuality disability and age as singular and natural markers of difference and diversity Rather than taking diversity as fixed and rooted in nature we explore how diversity is imagined and lived in particular contexts on and off campus
