Child Support Reform Hubert H.

Humphrey, III, 1998-05 Nonpayment of child support is a reality of life in the 1990s Most children living with only one parent live with their mother and these families of women and children are four times more likely to suffer poverty than other families This report resulting from a study by the Attorney General of Minnesota into the existing system of child support establishment enforcement and collection presents nine specific proposals aimed at simplifying the child support system making it more effective at collecting support and creatively tackling children's poverty as it relates to the nonpayment of support

Working from the Margins Virginia Schein, 2018-08-06 Virginia E Schein shatters the stereotype of mothers on welfare The women she interviewed in cities towns and rural areas talked to her about their deep commitment to the children they are raising in poverty about the abuse they have endured about their eagerness for meaningful work and about their inventiveness in stretching scarce dollars In a policy debate increasingly dominated by shrill punitive voices Schein argues that the experiences and collective wisdom of these women cannot be ignored
