Ghosts Of Rwanda

Thomas R. Mockaitis

Ghosts Of Rwanda:

Ghosts of Rwanda ,2004 Companion Web site to PBS programs with the same title that aired on PBS stations in April 2004 on the 10th anniversary of Rwandan genocide that killed more than 800 000 people It is the story of those who participated in the world s failure to act those few who stood up and tried to save lives and all who are still deeply haunted by what they did Includes interviews analysis a timeline a section on Rwanda today and a video clip I'm Not Leaving Book Discussion Kit ,2012

Five to Rule Them All David L. Bosco,2009 In this lively fast moving and often humorous narrative David Bosco illuminates the role of the Security Council in the postwar world telling the inside story of this remarkable diplomatic creation Drawing on extensive research including dozens of interviews with serving and former ambassadors on the Council the book chronicles political battles and personality clashes as it opens the closed doors of its meeting room What emerges here is a revealing portrait of the most powerful diplomatic body in the world

The Shakespearean International Yearbook Alexa Alice Joubin,Natalia Khomenko,2025-06-30 In the modern world references to Shakespeare frequently mark moments of catastrophe and of the accompanying longing for restoring social order remedying injuries and building strong communities Shakespeare s moral authority has often been invoked to support artistic projects that claimed social justice as their goal on the assumption that drama has the power to manipulate perceptual reality Drawing on cases from around the world this book interrogates the idea that performing or reading Shakespeare has socially reparative value It also acknowledges Shakespeare as a potential source of social well being practices in the arts The global framework shows that it is problematic to view Shakespeare as an impartial moral center This book proposes that reparative creativity or remedial uses of the canon can give artists and audiences more agency Having a map of canonical texts hidden ideologies can help readers artists and playgoers navigate its landscape which is in itself a reparative act

Rwanda's Genocide K. Moghalu,2005-11-18 In Rwanda s Genocide Kingsley Moghalu provides an engrossing account and analysis of the international political brinkmanship embedded in the quest for international justice for Rwanda s genocide He takes us behind the scenes to the political and strategic factors that shaped a path breaking war crimes tribunal and demonstrates why the trials at Arusha like Nuremberg Tokyo and the Hague are more than just prosecutions of culprits but also politics by other means This is the first serious book on the politics of justice for Rwanda s genocide Moghalu tells this gripping story with the authority of an insider elegant and engaging writing and intellectual mastery of the subject matter

Unknown Heroes of Rwanda Courage to Care NSW,Karolina Strozek,Dovi Seldowitz,2019-08-30 Unknown Heroes are those ordinary men and women who demonstrated the courage to care by protecting assisting or sheltering victims of mass genocide The stories of the unknown heroes demonstrate that even in the darkest of times there will always be ordinary people who will stand up and place themselves at risk to protect others from prejudice and injustice racism bullying and discrimination

Presidential Decision Making and Military Intervention in the Post-Cold War Era Dennis N. Ricci,2019-07-08

Despite the end of the Cold War the frequency of U S military intervention has increased While military intervention accelerated after 9 11 increasing intervention was demonstrably evident well before 2001 Presidential Decision Making and Military Intervention in the Post Cold War Era Go or No Go analyzes presidential decision making regarding military intervention through a focused structured comparison of go and no go decisions from the four successive administrations of Presidents George H W Bush Bill Clinton George W Bush and Barack Obama Dennis Ricci explores competing explanations for why a presidential administration will decide to intervene in one situation and not in another Since both the situations and decision makers vary across cases Ricci analyzes explanations for intervention by asking Why intervene Why use force or not Under what conditions or circumstances are intervention decisions made Rwanda Noah Berlatsky,2015-06-11 From April to July 1994 members of the Hutu ethnic majority in the east central African nation of Rwanda murdered as many as 800 000 people mostly of the Tutsi minority The essays in this anthology document and explain the social historical and economic factors that led to the genocide in Rwanda Background information and first person accounts of the events are provided as well to give the reader a more rounded knowledge of the events Charts and graphs are provided to summarize important statistical information and timelines are included to help the reader trace the sequence of events Maps provide details about the areas of contention and locations of conflux The Politics of Genocide Jeffrey S. Bachman,2022-09-16 Beginning with the negotiations that concluded with the unanimous adoption of the United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide on December 9 1948 and extending to the present day the United States Soviet Union Russia China United Kingdom and France have put forth great effort to ensure that they will not be implicated in the crime of genocide If this were to fail they have also ensured that holding any of them accountable for genocide will be practically impossible By situating genocide prevention in a system of territorial jurisdiction by excluding protection for political groups and acts constituting cultural genocide from the Genocide Convention by controlling when genocide is meaningfully named at the Security Council and by pointing the responsibility to protect in directions away from any of the P 5 they have achieved what can only be described as practical impunity for genocide The Politics of Genocide is the first book to explicitly demonstrate how the permanent member nations have exploited the Genocide Convention to isolate themselves from the reach of the law marking them as outlaw states On Shame Michael Morgan,2011-04-06 Shame is one of a family of self conscious emotions that includes embarrassment guilt disgrace and humiliation On Shame examines this emotion psychologically and philosophically in order to show how it can be a galvanizing force for moral action against the violence and atrocity that characterize the world we live in Michael L Morgan argues that because shame is global in its sense of the self the moral failures of all groups in which we are a member including the entire human race reflect on each person individually Drawing on historical and current affairs to explore the emotion of shame as well as films such as Night and Fog Hotel Rwanda and Life is Beautiful and the work of Primo Levi Bernard Williams and Stanley Cavell

Michael Morgan illustrates how moral responsibility can be facilitated by calling upon an emotional reaction that is familiar complex and central to our conception of ourselves as individuals and as members of society Genocide and Human Rights J. Roth, 2005-07-27 Genocide is evil or nothing could be It raises a host of questions about humanity rights justice and reality which are key areas of concern for philosophy Strangely however philosophers have tended to ignore genocide Even more problematic philosophy and philosophers bear more responsibility for genocide than they have usually admitted In Genocide and Human Rights A Philosophical Guide an international group of twenty five contemporary philosophers work to correct those deficiencies by showing how philosophy can and should respond to genocide particularly in ways that defend human rights

Dirty Hands and Vicious Deeds Samuel Totten, 2018-01-10 These original essays show how the US government repeatedly aided certain regimes as they planned and then carried out crimes against humanity and genocide What makes the collection unique and chilling is the inclusion of declassified documents generated by the US government at the time memoranda telegrams letters talking points cables discussion papers and situation reports In his introduction Totten offers a critical assessment of US foreign policy as it pertains to genocide and crimes against humanity and discusses the differences between those two terms In the chapters that follow each author presents a detailed analysis of a particular case of crimes against humanity or genocide by a foreign government against its own citizens and discusses why and how the United States government was complicit

Transitional Justice Christine Bell, 2016-02-17 This collection on transitional justice sits as part of a library of essays on different concepts of justice Yet transitional justice appears quite different from other types of justice and fundamental ambiguities characterise the term that raise questions as to how it should sit alongside other concepts of justice This collection attempts to capture and portray three different dimensions of the transitional justice field Part I addresses the origins of the field which continue to bedevil it Indeed the origins themselves are increasingly debated in what is an emergent contested historiography of the field that assists in understanding its contemporary quirks and concerns Part II addresses and sets out parts of the tool kit of transitional justice which could be understood as the canonical research agenda of the field Part III tries to convey a sense of the way in which the field is unfolding and extending to new transitions tools theories of justice and self critique

Avoiding the Slippery Slope Thomas R. Mockaitis, 2013 This Letort Paper covers U S military interventions in civil conflicts since the end of the Cold War It defines intervention as the use of military force to achieve a specific objective i e deliver humanitarian aid support revolutionaries or insurgents protect a threatened population etc and focuses on the phase of the intervention in which kinetic operations occurred The analysis considers five conflicts in which the United States intervened Somalia 1992 93 Haiti 1994 Bosnia 1995 Kosovo 1999 and Libya 2011 It also reviews two crises in which Washington might have intervened but chose not to Rwanda 1994 and Syria 2011 12 The author examines each case using five broad analytical questions 1 Could the intervention have achieved its objective at an acceptable cost in blood and treasure 2 What policy considerations prompted the intervention 3 How did the United States intervene 4 Was the intervention followed by a Phase 4 stability operation and 5 Did Washington have a viable exit strategy From analysis of these cases the author derives lessons that may guide policy makers in deciding when where and how to intervene in the future Film and Genocide Kristi M. Wilson,Tomás F. Crowder-Taraborrelli,2012-01-04 Film and

Genocide brings together scholars of film and of genocide to discuss film representations both fictional and documentary of the Holocaust the Armenian genocide and genocides in Chile Australia Rwanda and the United States Since 1955 when Alain Resnais created his experimental documentary Night and Fog about the Nazis mass killings of Jews and other ostracized groups filmmakers have struggled with using this medium to tell such difficult stories to re create the sociopolitical contexts of genocide and to urge awareness and action among viewers This volume looks at such issues as realism versus fiction the challenge of depicting atrocities in a manner palatable to spectators and film distributors the Holocaust film as a model for films about other genocides and the role of new technologies in disseminating films about genocide Film and Genocide also includes interviews with three film directors who discuss their experiences in working with deeply disturbing images and bringing hidden stories to life Irek Dobrowolski director of The Portraitist 2005 a documentary about Wilhelm Brasse an Auschwitz Birkenau prisoner ordered to take more than 40 000 photos at the camp Nick Hughes director of 100 Days 2005 a dramatic film about the Rwandan mass killings and Greg Barker director of Ghosts of Rwanda 2004 a television documentary for Frontline Claudine Rebero and George Mugohe Jean Baptiste Rufatabahizi,2014-03-31 George Mugohe is an elementary school teacher who lives in Kigali the capital city of Rwanda In this spellbinding novel showing the area s cultural roots he refuses to betray his Christian faith by honoring his kin ghosts Because of his rejection his wife Caroline becomes mad and dies Diviners and his wife s ghost intervene and advise George to offer a cow to his kin ghosts on behalf of his dead great grandfather if he wants to get a new wife He refuses and instead marries Claudine Rebero against his kin ghosts wishes As a punishment he is unable to make love to his second wife When Claudine abandons her husband George changes his mind and honors his kin ghosts as advised The couple reconciles and Claudine returns home To publicly thank Almighty God George and Claudine pay for a special mass Unknown to the invited guests high ranking angels famous ghosts and George s kin ghosts all attend the service An angel then visits the couple to tell them their future J Global Security in the Twenty-first Century Sean Kay,2011-08-16 This thoroughly updated edition of Global Security in the Twenty first Century offers a balanced introduction to contemporary security dilemmas in the world Sean Kay assesses the impact of the global economic crisis on international security and considers how the range of thinking about power and peace has evolved in relation to major flashpoints including in the Middle East Asia and Eurasia Kay focuses especially on the implications of the election of Barack Obama and the changing role of the United States in global security He builds on the first edition s emphasis on the role of trade and technology the militarization of space the privatization of security the use of sanctions ethnic conflict and transnational crime This edition goes even farther to incorporate traditional thinking about national security in the context of human rights democracy population health environment energy and especially education Writing in an engaging style Kay integrates traditional and emerging challenges in one easily accessible study that gives readers the tools they need to develop a thoughtful and nuanced understanding of global security

Mobilizing the Will to Intervene Frank Chalk, Kyle Matthews, Carla Barqueiro, Simon Doyle, 2010-08-23 Despite the handwringing and promises of never again the grim recurrences of genocide and crimes against humanity around the world have made it emphatically clear that the international community has been largely ineffective in stopping mass atrocity crimes Drawing on candid interviews with eighty key figures involved in American and Canadian responses to the Rwandan genocide of 1994 and the Kosovo crisis of 1999 Mobilizing the Will to Intervene explains why and provides a roadmap for change Since appeals to the moral law carry little weight in the political calculations of modern states the authors argue that civil society must persuade governments that the prevention of mass atrocities around the world is in every country's national interest In a globalized world violence disease and instability triggered by mass atrocities in one place affect the security health and prosperity of all other regions No nation is an island Impassioned insightful and determined Mobilizing the Will to Intervene is a direct appeal to American and Canadian politicians NGOs journalists and the public to participate effectively in the prevention of mass atrocities by pressuring their leaders to act With simple practical recommendations this book shows how civil society can participate in preventing future mass atrocities and help repair a ruined system of international aid

Cinematic Social Studies William B. Russell, Stewart Waters, 2017-01-01 Action Film is a common and powerful element in the social studies classroom and Cinematic Social Studies explores teaching and learning social studies with film Teaching with film is a prominent teaching strategy utilized by many teachers on a regular basis Cinematic Social Studies moves readers beyond the traditional perceptions of teaching film and explores the vast array of ideas and strategies related to teaching social studies with film The contributing authors of this volume seek to explain through an array of ideas and visions what cinematic social studies can should look like while providing research and rationales for why teaching social studies with film is valuable and important This volume includes twenty four scholarly chapters discussing relevant topics of importance to cinematic social studies The twenty four chapters are divided into three sections This stellar collection of writings includes contributions from noteworthy scholars like Keith Barton Wayne Journell James Damico Cynthia Tyson and many more

Holocaust and the Moving Image Toby Haggith, Joanna Newman, 2005 Based on an event held at the Imperial War Museum in 2001 this book is a blend of voices and perspectives archivists curators filmmakers scholars and Holocaust survivors Each section examines films and how they have contributed to wider awareness and understanding of the Holocaust since the war
