Se a Luigi Lanzi i ritratti di Giovan Battista Moroni sembravano tuttora spirare e vivere a Roberto Longhi apparivano così veri semplici documentari da comunicarci addirittura la certezza di averne conosciuto i modelli Che un pittore vissuto nel corso del Cinquecento abbia continuato a comunicare attraverso i secoli un fatto piuttosto eccezionale L'attualità di Moroni spiega anche la sua recente ribalta espositiva testimoniata dalle fortunate mostre alla Royal Academy of Arts di Londra 2014 e alla Frick Collection di New York 2019 Il lavoro di ricerca stato condotto nel corso di molti anni necessari a raccogliere le informazioni relative alle oltre 200 opere del pittore conservate nel territorio bergamasco e anche disseminate nei principali musei europei e statunitensi oltre che in molte collezioni private L'opera completa costituita da un saggio sulla biografia e l'evoluzione stilistica di Moroni uno sulla sua fortuna critica e il regesto generale dei documenti che lo riguardano a cura di Giampiero Tiraboschi Tutte le opere riferibili all'artista sono state schedate organizzate cronologicamente e riprodotte in fotografie a colori Il catalogo generale aggiorna e integra quello storico di Mina Gregori pubblicato nel 1979 Dal volume emerge il profilo di uno straordinario ritrattista immerso in un clima internazionale concentrato nell'elaborazione dello state portrait da cui prender le mosse per metterne a punto un'interpretazione originale Sul piano della pittura di tema religioso Moroni può esserne considerato uno degli interpreti più consapevoli vissuti nell'età della Controriforma

Sofonisba's Lesson Michael W. Cole, 2019 Within a span of seven or eight years in the 1550s the Italian painter Sofonisba Anguissola produced more self portraits than any known painter before her had in a lifetime She was the first known artist in history to take her parents and siblings as primary subject matter and may have painted the first group portrait featuring only women Cole examines Sofonisba's paintings as expressions of her relationships and networks looking at why Sofonisba was able to become a great woman artist at her father who decided to allow her to be educated as a painter at her teacher Bernardino Campi and at her relationships with her students sisters and patrons who included the Queen of Spain Cole demonstrates that Sofonisba made teaching and education a central theme of her painting The book also provides the first complete catalogue of all of Sofonisba's known works Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior Erin J. Campbell, 2016-03-09 Though portraits of old women mediate cultural preoccupations just as effectively as those of younger women the scant published research on images of older women belies their significance within early modern Italy This study examines the remarkable flowering largely overlooked in portraiture scholarship to date of portraits of old women in Northern Italy and especially Bologna during the second half of the sixteenth century when as a result of religious reform the lives of women and the family came under increasing scrutiny Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior draws on a wide range of primary visual sources including portraits religious images architectural views prints and drawings as well as extant palazzi and case furnishings and domestic objects created by the leading artists in Bologna including Lavinia Fontana Bartolomeo Passerotti Denys Calvaert and the Carracci The study also draws on an array of historical sources including sixteenth century theories of portraiture prescriptive writings on women and the family philosophical and practical treatises on the home economy sumptuary legislation books of secrets prescriptive writings on old age and household inventories to provide new historical perspectives on the domestic life of the propertied classes in Bologna during the period Author Erin Campbell contends that these images of unidentified women are not only crucial to our understanding of the cultural operations of art within the early modern world but also by working from the margins to revise the center provide an opportunity to present new conceptual frameworks and question our assumptions about old age portraiture and the domestic interior
