Bartlett,2024-01-25 Begins where diversity audits end informing and supporting academic school and public librarians in the quest to embed diversity equity and inclusion in a meaningful and sustainable manner throughout collections policies and practices A primary question for many librarians directors and board members is how to evaluate diversity in a collection on an ongoing basis Curating Community Collections provides librarians with the tools they need to understand the results of diversity audits and to formulate a reasonable achievable plan for increasing diversity equity and inclusion not only in the collection itself but also in library collection policies and practices Information on ways to make diversity equity and inclusion part of a library s everyday workflow will help ensure the sustainability of these principles Mary Schreiber and Wendy Bartlett teach readers how to increase the number of diverse materials in their collections and make them more discoverable to library patrons through the implementation of a community collections program Stories from librarians around the United States and Canada who are auditing and improving the diversity of their collections add broad scalable perspectives for libraries of any size budget and mission Action steps provided at the end of each section offer a practical road map for all types of libraries to curate a diverse equitable and inclusive community collection The Locations of (World) Literature ,2025-02-03 Location matters for critics readers and texts This book explores the notion of location not simply as geographical historical or cultural context but as a standpoint a position an orientation a necessarily partial and particular perspective however ample it may be from which writers represent and imagine their worlds However the constraint of location in the form of a reductive geographical marker has been felt most acutely by writers of the Global South This book explores how modern and contemporary writers from Africa and South Asia consider their place in the world in world literature and in the wider geographical regions or national literary histories which their work is identified with What worlds do these literatures simultaneously inhabit and create What networks do writers and institutions specific genres and works of literature but also circuits of readership translation and publishing produce And what are the imagined or discrepant geographies the different cosmopolitanisms that may be invented in the process This ground up approach from Lagos Algier Niamey Addis Ababa or Allahabad in English and in French but also in Swahili Malayalam Amharic Urdu Arabic Persian or Pulaar can pluralize a map whose entanglements and complexities face the risk of being ironed out by reified conceptualizations of literature within global macro systems Aethiopica ,1998 Black Lions Reidulf Knut Molvaer,1997
