Grade 1 November Life Orientation Paper 2013:

Citizen Participation at the Local Level in China and Canada Andrew Sancton, Chen Zhenming, 2014-11-13 What if anything is similar about citizen participation at the local level in Canada and China The answer of course is politically sensitive There are many in Canada who would claim that the question is absurd How can there be meaningful citizen participation in a country where there are significant restrictions on political activity including on the right to form organizations with political purposes Presenting the work of leading scholars Citizen Participation at the Local Level in China and Canada examines how citizens in each country participate at the local level The book examines the development of citizen participation in local governance in Canada and China respectively It then covers the characteristics of political culture and climate on local participation highlighting factors especially unique to urban poor class migration and aboriginal and immigrant populations The chapters also explore means of protest demonstration and articulation of preference by populations and issues where citizen participation has effected change such as land use housing urban development and resource sustainability The book includes case studies that compare Canadian and Chinese communities and extrapolate interesting policy level changes at the local level based on citizen behavior and involvement It underscores the similarities and differences in political participation in both countries

House of Commons - Home Affairs Committee: Asylum - HC 71 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2013-10-11 The asylum system is overburdened and under severe pressure The backlog of asylum cases that should have been cleared by 2011 has reached 32 600 with some people waiting up to 16 years for a decision Thousands appear to be living in a sub standard level of housing as part of the COMPASS contract supplied by the private contractors G4S Serco and Clearel These companies must be held accountable The quality of decision making is also of great concern as 30% of appeals against initial decisions were allowed in 2012 The impact of decisions are grave if asylum is not granted when it should be then the UK is failing to protect a vulnerable person If asylum is granted when it is not deserved then the UK may well end up harbouring war criminals and terrorists Those who apply for asylum should be checked against national and international law enforcement agency and security databases to ensure that we are not harbouring those who intend us harm The Home Secretary has to give assurance that any anomalies in the process which have allowed decisions such as this to take place are addressed immediately There are also concerns about the level of support available to those who seek asylum in the UK The Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 section 4 which provides a reduced support system for asylum seekers who had had their claim refused but were unable to return to their country of origin through reasons that were no fault of theirs is not a solution
