How To Get Filthy Rich In Rising Asia A Novel:

How to Get Filthy Rich In Rising Asia Mohsin Hamid, 2013-03-28 How to Get Filthy Rich in Rising Asia is Mohsin Hamid's spectacular thought provoking novel of modern Asia. In this keenly awaited follow up to his bestselling The Reluctant Fundamentalist, Mohsin Hamid confirms his place as a radically inventive story teller with his finger on the world's pulse. The astonishing and riveting tale of a man's journey from impoverished rural boy to corporate tycoon, it steals its shape from the business self help books devoured by youths all over rising Asia. It follows its nameless hero to the sprawling metropolis where he begins to amass an empire built on the most fluid and increasingly scarce of goods: water. Yet his heart remains set on something else: on the pretty girl whose star rises alongside his, their paths crossing and re crossing in a love affair sparked and snuffed out again by the forces that careen their fates along. The hero of the story could be any one of us hungry for a different life. And ours too could be the fate that awaits him. Fast paced, vivid and emotionally absorbing, How to Get Filthy Rich in Rising Asia creates two unforgettable characters who find moments of transcendent intimacy in the midst of shattering change. Praise for How to Get Filthy Rich in Rising Asia: Even more intriguing, compelling and moving than The Reluctant Fundamentalist. A marvellous book. Philip Pullman. This brilliantly structured, deeply felt book is written with the confidence and bravura of a man born to write. Hamid is at the peak of his considerable powers here and delivers a tightly paced, preternaturally wise book about a thoroughly likable, thoroughly troubled striver in the messiest, most chaotic ring of global economy. Completely unforgettable. Dave Eggers. Mohsin Hamid is one of the best writers in the world period. Only a master could have written this propulsive tale of a striver living on the knife's edge, a noir Horatio Alger story for our frenetic, violent times. Ben Fountain. Written in the most compelling second person since Jay McInerney's Bright Lights, Big City, with which it also shares a sharp take on our frenetic urban lives, Hamid's novel proves that the most compelling fiction today is coming from South Asia. Daily Beast. Mohsin Hamid is the author of The Reluctant Fundamentalist and Moth Smoke. His fiction has been adapted for the cinema, translated into over 30 languages, received numerous awards and been shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize. He has contributed essays and short stories to publications such as the Guardian, The New York Times, Financial Times, Granta and the New Yorker. Born and mostly raised in Lahore, he spent part of his childhood in California, studied at Princeton University and Harvard Law School and has since lived between Lahore, London and New York.

How to Get Filthy Rich in Rising Asia Mohsin Hamid, 2013-03-05 Mr Hamid reaffirms his place as one of his generation's most inventive and gifted writers. Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times. A globalized version of The Great Gatsby. Hamid's book is nearly that good. Alan Cheuse, NPR. Marvelous and moving. TIME Magazine. From the internationally bestselling author of The Reluctant Fundamentalist and Exit West, the boldly imagined tale of a poor boy's quest for wealth and love. His first two novels established Mohsin Hamid as a radically inventive storyteller with his finger on the world's pulse. How to Get Filthy Rich in Rising Asia meets that reputation and exceeds it. The astonishing and riveting tale of a man's of literary and creative writing studies The theoretical approach uses four metapragmatic stereotypes regarding what constitutes an authentic author The theoretical approach and metapragmatic stereotype form an evaluative framework that can be applied on diverse data to replicate findings The study originated from the author's own exposure to prevailing literary discourse through public engagements as a writer She became aware of the problematic nature of an author's public self presentation with a requirement to be yourself Each celebrity author of color faces a paradoxical positioning within literary discourse as a result of that requirement Through her study Dr Iyer sought to discover how authors of color negotiate themselves in public spheres including digital social media platforms in order to accomplish authenticity discursively This book is ideal for learners and practitioners in creative writing who are seeking strategies for self presentation as published authors It is also valuable for researchers in discourse analysis including literary discourse and social media discourse providing an empirical means of evaluating authenticity as understood in contemporary times

Freedom Inc.: Gendered Capitalism in New Indian Literature and Culture Mukti Lakhi Mangharam, 2023-06-15 While globalization is often credited with the eradication of traditional constraints tied to gender and caste in reality the opening up of the Indian economy in the 1990s has led to a decline in freedom for many female Dalit and lower class Indians This book explores the contraction of what it means to be free in post liberalization India examining how global capitalism has exacerbated existing inequalities based on traditional femininities and masculinities while also creating new hierarchies Freedom Inc argues that post 1990s literature and culture frequently represents and reinforces the equation of free market capitalism with individual freedom within the new idea of India However many texts often also challenge this logic by pointing to more expansive horizons of autonomy for the gendered self Through readings of texts as diverse as Dalit women's life writing pop fiction realist novels self help regional film and Netflix TV shows Mangharam investigates how notions like free trade entrepreneurship and self help are experienced embodied and challenged by disadvantaged peoples and by women differently than men In the process Freedom Inc explores how different literary forms illuminate alternative and buried pathways to fuller freedoms

Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson, 2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelists The Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers Ian McEwan David Mitchell Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms arealist apostmodernist ahistorical and apostcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell Sarah Hall A L Kennedy Alan Warner Ali Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Kate Atkinson Salman Rushdie Adam Foulds Sarah Waters James Robertson Mohsin Hamid

Making Sense of Contemporary British Muslim Novels Claire Chambers, 2019-04-23 This book is the sequel to Britain Through Muslim Eyes and examines contemporary novelistic representations of and by Muslims in Britain It builds on studies of the five senses and sensuous geographies of postcolonial Britain and charts the development since 1988 of a fascinating and important body of fiction by Muslim identified authors It is a selective literary history exploring case study novelistic representations of and by Muslims in Britain to allow in depth critical analysis through the lens of sensory criticism It argues that for authors of Muslim heritage in Britain writing the senses is often a double edged act of protest Some of the key authors excoriate a suppression or cover up of non heteronormativity and women s rights that sometimes occurs in Muslim communities Yet their protest is especially directed at secular culture s ocularcentrism and at successive British governments efforts to surveil control and suppress Muslim bodies

Language and Literature in a Glocal World Sandhya Rao Mehta, 2018-06-29 This collection of critical essays investigates the intersections of the global and local in literature and language Exploring the connections that exist between global forms of knowledge and their local regional applications this volume explores multiple ways in which literature is influenced and in turn influences movements and events across the world and how these are articulated in various genres of world literature including the resultant challenges to translation This book also explores the way in which languages especially English transform and continue to be reinvented in its use across the world Using perspectives from sociolinguistics discourse analysis and semiotics this volume focuses on diasporic literature travel literature and literature in translation from different parts of the world to study the ways in which languages change and grow as they are sought to be owned by the communities which use them in different contexts Emphasizing on interdisciplinary studies and methodologies this collection centralizes both research that theorizes the links between the local and the global and that which shows through practical evidence how the local and global interact in new and challenging ways

Pragmatic Perspectives on Postcolonial Discourse Christoph Schubert, Laurenz Volkmann, 2016-06-22 In sociolinguistic research on Englishes world wide little has been published on the pragmatics of postcolonial varieties This interdisciplinary volume closes this research gap by providing integrative investigations of postcolonial discourses probing the interstices between linguistic methodologies and literary text analysis The literary texts under discussion are conceptualized as media both reflecting and creating reality so that they provide valuable insights into postcolonial discourse phenomena The contributions deal with the issue of how postcolonial Englishes such as those spoken in India Nigeria South Africa and the Caribbean have produced different pragmatic conventions in a complex interplay of culture specific and global linguistic practices They show the ways in which hybrid communicative situations based on ethnic cultural and linguistic diversity result in similarly hybrid social and communicative routines The central pragmatic paradigms discussed here include im politeness speech act conventions conversational maxims deixis humour code switching and mixing Othering and linguistic exclusion

Ecocriticism of the Global South Scott Slovic, Swarnalatha Rangarajan, Vidya Sarveswaran, 2015-03-24 The vast majority of existing ecocritical studies even those which espouse the postcolonial ecocritical perspective operate within a first world sensibility speaking on behalf of subalternized human communities and degraded landscapes without actually eliciting the voices of the impacted communities Ecocriticism of the Global South seeks to allow scholars from or intimately familiar with underrepresented regions to write back to the world's centers of political and military and economic power expressing views of the intersections of nature and culture from the perspective of developing countries This approach highlights what activist and writer Vandana Shiva has described as the relationship between ecology and the politics of survival showing both commonalities and local idiosyncrasies by juxtaposing such countries as China and Northern Ireland New Zealand and Cameroon Much like Ecoambiguity Community and Development this new book is devoted to representing diverse and innovative ecocritical voices from throughout the world particularly from developing nations The two volumes complement each other by pointing out the need for further cultivation of the environmental humanities in regions of the world that are essentially the front line of the human struggle to invent sustainable and just civilizations on an imperiled planet

Recognitions Enrico Botta, Gianna Fusco, Pilar Martínez Benedí, Anna Scannavini, 2024-11-04 This volume offers a critical exploration of the many ways in which transcodification acts at the intersection of literature art history and social and cultural artifacts to foster instances of recognition in the US Recognition covers a wealth of meanings from the mere acknowledgement of existence validity or legality or appreciation of something as valuable to the identification of something as known or familiar Accordingly this volume deals with different struggles for recognition One focus of the volume is the assessment of artistic achievement in relation to a so called original with essays concerned with cultural codes and with the role that translation adaptation and cross cultural encounters have played in US artistic and literary productions A second parallel strand focuses on the fight for political and social inclusion or on the dynamics beneath the recognition of group and gender identities to explore how activism and artistic literary productions challenge received identity boundaries and accepted social and cultural hierarchies Bringing together recognition and transcodification transculturality the book deconstructs crystalized and codified categories and celebrates the crossing of boundaries
