

A close-up photograph of a person's hands working on a car's radiator. The person is wearing blue jeans and is using a tool to remove the top section of the radiator. The radiator is a large, rectangular unit with a black lower section and a silver upper section. A green plastic bucket filled with dark red liquid (likely coolant) is positioned below the radiator to catch any spills. The car's headlight is visible on the right side of the frame. The background shows the engine compartment and various mechanical parts.
